Meet

Kiley & Justin

- How did you and your partner meet?

My family moved to Chapin, SC while I was in college and Justin worked right down the road at the marina where my family put our jet ski in. He would always offer to help my mom back the trailer into the water and one day she made me come with her because she thought Justin was cute...And the rest is history, all thanks to my mom!

- When did you get engaged?

We got engaged in Highlands, NC. His family asked me to join them in the mountains for the weekend while they looked at potential houses (I thought nothing of it at the time). We were getting ready to go out to a nice family dinner and decided to take pictures out on the back deck of the mountain house. Justin suggested we take a photo from behind overlooking the mountains (which was totally out of character, but I didn't catch it at the time) and when we turned back around, he was on one knee. After he proposed, my family came out of the house and surprised me. It was the best weekend ever!

- What is something you love doing together?

Justin and I love spending time out on the lake with friends and making weekend trips to Sierra Nevada Brewery in NC!
