Dear Anthony,

The challenges are real. The structure and funding of Medicare, Medicaid, and the Older Americans Act will be hotly debated in 2017.

But our determination is real too. We will #StandWithSeniors to fight for practical, bipartisan solutions that work for all American families.

Add your voice by donating to NCOA today.

Some say Medicare is too expensive and seniors should pay more. We say empowering older adults to manage their health and prevent disease improves lives and lowers health costs.

Some say we should cut Medicaid. We say helping seniors and people with disabilities stay in their own homes—instead of nursing homes—saves money and keeps families together.

Some say Older Americans Act programs don't matter. We say nutritious meals, transportation, and supportive services keep older adults independent.

These programs are vital for all Americans—whether you're aging today or you're lucky enough to live long into the future.

#StandWithSeniors today—and protect your future.
