Good Morning Charleston (News)

... senators don't act in the next few days. riders could be losing uber's ride- sharing service entirely. governor nikki haley is urging senators to pass a bill that would allow uber to continue operating in south carolina past this summer. in january the public service commission issued a cease and desist order stopping the service. that was later reversed, granting a temporary license through june 30-th. the senate must now take another vote. ...
