Subject: Questions for Interviewing the Governor

Dear Brian Symmes,

We spoke on the phone this morning. I'm a student at the University of South Carolina Upstate majoring in Journalism and I contacted you about interviewing Governor Nikki Haley with her nominee to be the GOP response speaker to the Presidents 2016 State of the Union Address.

Attached to this email are the 12 questions I wish to ask her. They were put together by me with the help of my Mass Media professor Alison Ludwig who is one of the Staff to our school paper. We believe these are the most important issues that will come up in the 2016 state of the union and they are what many students around Upstate and our community are anxious to hear.

With the start of School still a week away my availability is pretty open so whenever the Governor is available to do this interview before the speech will work with me. As I said on the phone I understand Gov. Haley is a very busy woman but if we could arrange something anywhere weather in the State house or around the Columbia area I'd greatly appreciate it.

You or the Governors Press Secretary can contact me back through email or feel free to give me a call at 443-994-6404.

Thank You

Alex Love
