In two places, you say we'll pay 20 percent above base student cost, which isn't true. We'll pay "an additional 20 percent" for those kinds of kids, if you want to say that. Or you could say that "districts will receive 20 percent more" for each one of those kids. But the 20 percent value isn't actually associated with base student cost. Thanks.

Christian,

Can you look at the substance and suggest changes if necessary?

Thanks,
