Subject: CBS This Morning - Follow Up

Hi There –

Just following up! Once again, we're working on a preview piece for tomorrow morning's CBS This Morning, looking ahead to the SOTU rebuttal. In addition to knowing that she will be delivering the address from the Governor's residence, we would love any other kind of color you could provide. As I'm sure you know there have been several formats over the years, including live audiences. Is she planning on giving it straight to camera, ect.? Anything you want to share regarding content or ideas she's going to be highlighting would be appreciated as well.

Thank you again and looking forward to Wednesday morning live.
