Subject: Re: Rat Log for 2012

---

Guys,

First, as always great job Josh!

Looking at the rat log my veto list consists of two.

S1167 Lourie

H4082 Edge

I can understand why these other two are on the maybe list but are a waste of a veto.
H 3676. Everyone in the House voted for it and only two in the Senate were against it. I believe the outcome of implementation of the bill probably could be done in some capacity through local governments without legislation. So what are we stopping if we could get the votes?
S 947. Cost too much. Really bad timing.

Everything else in my opinion is not horrible policy and my vote is we sign.

In football officiating i ask my crew to take four things into account when it comes to calling fouls on Saturday. That is also the approach I think we ought to take to vetoes.

Call the obvious.

Make them big.

Ask yourself did it really matter?

And don't pick the pepper out of the fly manure.

Call me if you have any questions. Sorry I am not there to help.
