Data for January posted

We have updated the CWRC website with county-level NCRC data through January. Feel free to let us know if you have questions or concerns about the data.

South Carolina onboard 34 counties

Last week, the South Carolina Workforce Investment Board (SWIB) approved the applications of 34 counties to be designated as South Carolina Work Ready Communities In Progress. Visit the South Carolina, Missouri and Oregon pages on the CWRC website to see all participating counties to date.

NWSAB meeting next month

The National Workforce Solutions Advisory Board (NWSAB) will hold its next meeting in Atlanta in March; the NWSAB provides strategic guidance to the CWRC initiative and a focus on closing the skills gap across the nation. For more information about the NWSAB, click here.

National Association of Workforce Boards Forum 2013

ACT will be participating in the NAWB forum in Washington, D.C., March 9-12. This premier event hosts leaders in business, government, labor, workforce, and education in an unmatched opportunity to connect with your peers, learn from industry experts, and collectively work to shape national policy affecting the future of human capital development. Pre-Conference Strategic Planning, Business and Industry Sessions, Expanded Workshops, Issue Forums, Partners' Exchange, and more. Online registration ends tomorrow. Click here to learn more.
