Thank you. It just scared me when I went to my Reserve America account and the reservation was gone. I didn't know about the change. An email would have been seen. So much gets posted to Social Media, it's too easy to miss such information.

Was a notice sent out about no longer using Reserve America?

I must have missed it. Called and found out why I no longer had reservations at Reserve America. Kinda freaked out. Our families try to get together at Hunting Island every fall. Thanks.
