The Heritage Library is proud to be a host of the National Underground Railroad Conference hosted at the Westin Resort and Spa on Hilton Head Island June 13th - June 16th.

As a recently named FACILITY on the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom, we are also proud to be one of only three partners on Hilton Head Island and four in the State of South Carolina.

Two Heritage Library Board Members, Lou Benfante and Ezra (Cal) Callahan will present at the conference, "Identifying the Residents of Mitchelville and the Members of the 21st USCT" and "The People of Mitchelville Project and Native Islander Roots" respectively, during the Opening Plenary Session on Tuesday, June 14th.

In addition, The Heritage Library will be hosting two class sessions on Researching African American Ancestry on June 17th at 10:30 and 1:00 - register here.
