FEATURED STORY FOR OCTOBER 4, 2018

Slavery Is Still a Legal Punishment. Voters in One State Have a (Second) Chance to Abolish It.

In 2016, Coloradoans voted against abolishing slavery in prisons -- a clause that exists in the U.S. Constitution and several states'. This year, the issue is back on the ballot. PLUS:

NEWS IN NUMBERS

Almost $25 billion

Extra money -- beyond their cost of care -- that immigrants covered by employers paid toward private health insurance premiums in 2014. U.S.-born people covered by employers spent the opposite: nearly $25 billion less on premiums when compared to the cost of their care.
