What is it in the southern psyche that allows a symbol of oppression to fly on the capital grounds of South Carolina? We have gone to war with England, Germany, Japan and Vietnam who we have normalized relations with. Yet we don't see swastikas flying over the graves of WWII German soldiers. When is South Carolina going to transcend the horror of white supremacy and eradicate the symbols of oppression? I hope you have the courage to confront this important issue at this critical time in your State's history.

Sincerely,

Craig [REDACTED]

As someone who has been teaching about institutional racism for 28 years, I continue to use the flying of the Confederate flag over your statehouse as an example of culturally-embedded symbols of racial hatred. You must take this opportunity to make this example an artifact of past racism and move into the modern world. This is a chance for you to do something noble to honor the victims of this most recent heinous crime, whose perpetrator draped himself in the Confederate flag to symbolize white supremacy.

I have relatives who live in SC and I am writing from Arkansas. They feel the same way I do. I strongly feel the confederate should be removed from the grounds of the state capital in Columbus. In light of the shooting tragedy, it has been made abundantly clear the symbol of the hatred and racism that the flag has and still does represent. A process of healing could be helped by the state removing this symbol. Gov. Haley, YOU are the face of South Carolina. YOU are the leader. Now, why not do some leading?? Call the legislature into session. Have a bill ready to remove the confederate flag from the grounds of the state capital. Use your power to get it passed. Unanimously would be nice. Times like these is when the country looks to its elected leaders. Gov. Haley, the time is now. Get it done.

Take down the Confederate flag now governor. The flag has no relevance in 21st century America. The South lost the war to the North over a century ago. The only reason it persists is because of white supremacists....it's time to put them in their place and end this pandering nonsense!

Governor Haley,

I'm a fellow Indian American and like many, I am extremely saddened and distraught at the terrorist acts that occurred in Charleston yesterday. I understand that you have previously defended the display of the Confederate flags that are displayed in your state. These flags are a direct symbol of racism and actions that target Black communities. As minorities ourselves, we should be the first to understand what racism, inequity, and white privilege entails. I urge you to take down this flag which perpetuates the racism that is present in South Carolina, but also all around the US and the world. I hope you can understand how the display of this flag is a racist act in itself.

I'm very upset over the Charleston massacre. I hope that the Governor and the Legislature will come to the conclusion that appeasing the haters and gun carriers in the State is leading to this kind of outcome. TAKE DOWN THE REBEL FLAG and pass legislation that controls guns. Anyone who feels the need to carry a gun has in the back of his mind that he is going to "have to" kill someone. Even if this costs one of you a re-election, in order to live with yourself, you need to do the right thing.

No child in SC should have to look at a rebel flag or corner gun shop and be raised in fear.

Why are you flying the Confederate flag? It has no place in today's world, and it causes ill will on all sides. It's even worse now that the Confederate flag is NOT at half-staff. I will not travel to South Carolina until your policies change, and I will miss out on visiting your beautiful State.

South Carolina is a beautiful state with much to offer. I know there are many ethical and kind people there. However, having the Confederate flag waving on state property taints the image of South Carolina. I can never again visit Charleston as long as that symbol of hatred and racism flies anywhere on the Capitol's grounds, especially in light of the recent shooting in the church. Private citizens have a right to fly that flag if they feel they must, but it has no place on property belonging to the State of South Carolina. Please take it down. Thank you for your time.

Dear Governor Haley,

I'm an Indian American, and I am heartbroken by the shootings in Charleston. You and I, as brown people in America, should realize that we are far from a post-racial America. We are deeply steeped in a country where racism and racial tension has been increasing to now being a fever pitch in America.

I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag, because it represents white supremacist ideologies and actions targeting Black communities. The very first sentence of South Carolina's Articles of Confederation states that the reason for wanting to withdraw from the Federal Union was to have the right to hold slaves:

"The people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, on the 26th day of April, A.D., 1852, declared that the frequent violations of the Constitution of the United States, by the Federal Government, and its encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States, fully justified this State in then withdrawing from the Federal Union; but in deference to the opinions and wishes of the other slaveholding States, she forbore at that time to exercise this right."

In an October 2014 debate, you stated that South Carolina fixed racial problems in the state by electing an Indian American. As a child, I was told that I was the "good brown" because my hair was straight. You have an obligation, as a brown person in America to fight for injustice and make it clear that ALL brown people in America are the "good brown." As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Dear Governor Haley,

I am begging you in the name of common decency to remove the Confederate flag from the South Carolina State Capitol. To keep it flying at full staff after the horrifying events of this week is an insult to the memory of the people who died and to the memories of all who have died in racist violence.

I will not set foot in South Carolina or spend a penny of money there until the flag is gone.

Respectfully yours,

E. [REDACTED]

The Confederate flag symbolism is in keeping with the National swastika. They both remind us of the racism, hatred, bigotry, intolerance, annihilation, separation of people and war. It is not an image of unity. I demand a removal of all Confederate flags from all state and county buildings as a gesture of peace and acceptance. We are one people who pledge allegiance to one country and one flag.

The tragic event this week in Charleston brings to light the radical and divisive attitudes of some in our state. The citizens of Charleston reflect love and understanding at this most tragic time to our nation. How can the symbol of radical bias fly at our State House? In 2015 it is beyond a memorial to those South Carolinians who lost their lives during the Civil War. The legislature needs to act now to remove it.

Your support and assistance would be appreciated.

Please pass along to the governor my heartfelt sorrow for what has happened in the beautiful city of Charleston, which I have visited on many occasions. Please also ask her to consider that one of the good things that could come out of this awful tragedy is the final, long-overdue removal of Confederate flags on government buildings in the great state of South Carolina. I am NOT African-American, but I take issue that we all say we want to promote racial unity, yet we are unwilling to do even the most obvious things to get the conversation started. The focus will soon fade from Charleston and these nine innocent people who lost their lives, and we most likely will not do anything that will make a difference or make their deaths count for something. Please be bold and prayerfully consider taking a true leadership role in the racial war that is the elephant in America's living room. Prayers for you and all my fellow South Carolina citizens, sonya [REDACTED]

Is it time to re-think flying the confederate battle flag over the state capital yet? Do we really need more dead people to make us think about the heritage of enslaving and killing people of color?

Be brave! Take down the Confederate flag in front of your state house. Do this as a tribute to the people who were killed by hate in your state. Stop catering to the sons of the confederacy. The Old South is dead! Bury it. Until you do, we are going to personally boycott your state.

<MSG>

Governor Haley,

I do not live in South Carolina, but I am a former Southerner, and my parents live in Bluffton, and are big fans of yours. I'm writing to encourage you to take down the confederate flag flying at the state capitol. What possible good can come from continuing to fly it? It's totally offensive to people with good sense. And to those without good sense, it encourages the idea that the values of the Confederacy are still a valued part of Southern culture. They aren't.

Shouldn't the South finally shed it's ties with it's shameful past? If there is truly a "new South" of vibrancy and and inclusion, shouldn't there be a better symbol for it than one that symbolizes it's past of oppression and degradation of an entire race of people? As someone of Indian descent, surely you can appreciate the horror of racism, and see the need for change.

Sincerely,

Craig [REDACTED]

I watched you choke up on TV yesterday - but it felt very disingenuous - I'm not at all convinced your tears were for the 9 women and men who were murdered -
Racism is alive and well, and prospering in South Carolina. The Southern Poverty Law Center tracks the hate groups and your state has a large share. The fact that the Confederate flag is waiving over your state capital gives domestic terrorism reason to be. Do the right thing - stand up to the racism in your state - take down this symbolism of violent racism. It's time for it's burial, before we have more innocents to bury.

Out of respect for those lost and for the State of South Carolina itself the Confederate Flag should be taken down immediately and be left for the history books. What purpose is there to display it? Only good fan come from removing it. If debatable at least take it down until just cause for a greater good is recognized.

truly, this is a dark hour for the people of South Carolina, and if there was anything i could do to help i would in a heartbeat.

as it is, all i can think to do is ask you, "In a state that flies the Confederate flag over its capitol, a flag that is the ameriKKKan equivalent of a NAZI SWASTIKA, can you be at all surprised?"

for all of my life i have wondered why any Black people reside within your borders. to have to live on streets and attend schools named after genocidal, torturous, brutal exploiters of all of my ancestors, and look at that flag every day would likely make me pick up a weapon, and aim it at the still racist monsters maintaining this evil legacy as if it is something to be proud of--and i am as White as can be.

use this tragic event as a means to correct some of these humiliating and cruel injustices, please.

It should be clear to you, as it is to the rest of the world, that the Confederate flag and all of the racism it embodies is the reason Dylann Roof shot and killed so many innocent people. Do you really want your state to be known as the most racist and ignorant state in our nation? If you are a true leader, stand up against this tyranny. Celebrate history, not divisiveness.

Governor,

You do not do yourself or your State any honor by admitting a lack of understanding of what causes a white man to kill black people in a church. Your tears and call for prayer are insincere and will solve nothing. Your longterm stance against gun control, and the fact that your State continues to honor the confederate flag should be reminders that you are a part of the problem, not a part of the solution.

Yes, I understand the flag cannot be removed or changed without a 2/3 majority from your state legislature, but you as the leader of your state, should be vocal in your support of changes that can lead your state, and our nation to a better place. Has there not been enough killing in your state recently to help you realize that you do need to understand what causes these acts of terror and hate to take place?

Let the rest of the nation do the praying and the questioning; it is your job to lead change.

Respectfully,

Ron [REDACTED]

Although I disagree with you flying the Confederate flag at all, [you are a citizen of the USA ?]
Out of respect, your confederate flag should be flown at 1/2 mast. It appears you celebrate the vicious murders.

Governor Haley, thank you for your leadership to date as we deal with the horrible tragedy at Mother Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston. However, it's far past time, and the right time, to forever lower the Confederate flag that flies on the capitol grounds in Columbia. While I am not a "son of the South," I am choosing to raise my son in the Lowcountry. I want to be proud of the state in which we have chosen to live. The insistence on flying that flag, which represents so much hatred and racism, will forever remain a stain on this great state. Please take it down.

Dear Governor,

Many around our beautiful Nation have stated the confederate flag flying in South Carolina is inciteful, and the police called the assassination of State Senator Pinckney a "Hate crime". Out of respect for human life, and for the position of leadership entitled State Senator of South Carolina, it would be a wise choice to take down the confederate flag, akin to flying a swastika in Germany.

Warmly,

Dear Governor Haley,

I'd first like to offer condolences for the loss of your fellow servant, Clementa, and for the loss of 8 other fellow South Carolinians. Today, I'm humbled by the grace of the families who spoke at the bond hearing for Dylann Roof. I'm proud of how the people of our state have gathered together united in grief for the fallen and pride for their state.

I'm deeply saddened, though, that we continue to stubbornly allow the Confederate battle flag. I know that the history of the flag is not uncomplicated, but that should be beside the point. It has been used time and again as a symbol of hate and a symbol of racism. So, despite what it may or may not really represent, it is a painful reminder for a large segment of our population, black and white. That's all that should really matter.

Can't we send a strong message to the rest of the world that we really to go about the business of healing our wounds? Let's do this as token to love for those who lost loved ones yesterday. Please.

God bless South Carolina and God bless us all

Dear Governor Haley,

I am a Charleston, SC resident and supporter of yours. The people of Charleston, SC and the United States are respectfully asking you to take whatever executive action necessary, including swaying the Assembly, to remove the Confederate battle flag from the statehouse grounds. It is offensive to all people of good will and continues to tarnish the reputation of this state and the fine people who live here. This action should not be taken next week, next month or next year. It must happen now. Please show the leadership to do what is right. You have many supporters out here are anxiously awaiting to see what action you take. Please make the right decision.

Respectfully,

Governor Haley:

Good morning. While I am sure you're overwhelmed with emails, phone calls, press meetings, ranters, hate-mongers, activists, advocates, and so forth, I simply wanted to share a concern that fellow seminarians in Columbus, Ohio, share in the aftermath of the Charleston AME shooting this week. Might removing the Confederate flag from atop the Statehouse be one small action taken for change and unity in a state where racially-motivated hatred still runs all too high?

I currently work at [REDACTED] church on Columbus, Ohio's eastside, in a mostly black neighborhood. Our congregation is largely white and affluent. There is always tension between being 'for the community' while knowing that our socio-economic background is far different than the community our church resides in. Much work will always need done in the United States to overcome hate and discrimination. I hope that South Carolina can be a forerunner in policy change and action to prevent further gun violence and racially-motivated crimes.

Thank you for your time,

Scott C. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

The recent tragic events in Charleston, SC, have brought to my attention the fact that South Carolina has enshrined, in law, the flying of the Confederate Flag at the State Capital. I was appalled to read that the flag cannot even be lowered except by action of the state's General Assembly. You were quoted today in the Washington Post explaining you have not addressed the flag because it doesn't seem to be an issue for those seeking to do business with the state. This comment is what spurred me to write, as I want to assure you and the people of South Carolina that it IS an issue, and it sends a definitive message that the state embraces racism as official policy.

My husband and I have been planning a fall vacation, and South Carolina was on our short list. I am writing to you and other organizations in the state to say that, unfortunately, because of the racist stance of the people of the state who have voted in and allowed to remain in office those who would enshrine a symbol of hatred, South Carolina will no longer be considered a destination of choice. As long as the state maintains its current stance, I will not travel to South Carolina for business or leisure, nor will I purchase goods manufactured within the state.

Sincerely,
Kim [REDACTED]

I could rant for days on this, but let it be known that I am feeling quite appalled that your confederate flag is not at half-mast after the shootings in your state, and the killing of 9 innocent people.

If those people were white, like me and you, I have no doubt it would be.

I don't care what your policies are, show some damned respect.

With Hope,

I understand I am from the North. Out-of-State and perhaps an opinion viewed less important. We have vacationed in South Carolina, have always enjoyed the experience and planned to contribute to your economy in the future. However in light of the murders in Charleston and the fact South Carolina still flies the Confederate flag & names interstate roads honoring Confederate Generals/Leaders (e.g. Jefferson Davis) I felt compelled to ask you reconsider these practices. I have concluded this is likely serving as State-sponsored validation of a negative racial climate and perhaps aided the mentality of the murderer. He was purposeful to choose flags as a symbol of his hate. I know it is a small protest in the grand scheme, but we will find other vacation venues in the future until these practices are changed.

Dear Governor Haley,

As a daughter of two civil right activists, I can tell you that if I was a resident in South Carolina, I would pack up my things today and move out of the state. My sister lives in Charleston. How can she abide by a state that allows for a confederate flag to fly high after a racist hate crime? The policy is controlled by the state government or is somehow out of your control? Great, hold an emergency session. How can a governor have the power to release someone from a death sentence by pardon but cannot remove a symbol of hate and racism to 80% of African Americans and 80% of Democrats. Please help me feel less like an idiot for continuing to live in the South.

My regards, Allison [REDACTED]

</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Madame Governor,

A horrible tragedy has taken place in the state of South Carolina. A young man carried out a racially motivated hate crime, an act of terrorism, in a place of worship, killing 9 people while they worshipped in God's house. This sickening act uncovers the deep racism that still exists in South Carolina, and in states all over the nation. I am myself from Indiana, a state whose past includes being home to a large northern branch of the KKK, and where still to this day many people hold deep hatred for black people -- indeed for gay people, trans people, and many other minorities. I understand what it's like to love a place but feel profoundly saddened and ashamed by its intolerance -- and not know where to start when trying to make a change towards tolerance, towards facing the racism and eliminating it. It's a huge process, and a long one -- it starts with admitting we have a problem. South Carolina has a problem. So start by taking down the Confederate flag. This flag is a symbol of hatred, a symbol that puts ache and despair in the hearts of people who know what it means, that keeps us from moving on from inequality to respect and celebration of one another. Take down the flags - there are other ways to celebrate the rich history of South Carolina. Next, prosecute this man for his horrific, hateful acts of violence and let it be publicized far and wide. Let everyone know that such extremism will not be tolerated in SC. Let black people all over your state - people that you represent, that you serve - know that you stand with them and will not let hatred against them go un-fought. Educate your population - let the people of South Carolina know that hatred does nothing but dissolve communities, weaken countries and ruin lives. The civil rights era painted the South as a place full of hateful hearts and mind, people who despised others for their differences. Create a new identity for your state. Make it the state to end the South's obsession with antebellum and the idea of the Confederacy. Take a step into the future. Don't let this country forge wounds in itself deeper than the wounds have already been cut. Take down the flag. Take that terrorist to jail. Take a step forward as a state. Please. For all of us.

Best,
Aubrey

Symbols of hate have no place in our government.

The Confederate flag is not a symbol of southern pride but rather a symbol of rebellion and racism. On the heels of the brutal killing of nine Black people in a South Carolina church by a racist terrorist, it's time to put that symbol of rebellion and racism behind us and move toward healing and a better United States of America!

Dear Governor Haley,

I have never been politically active in any way in my 63 years as a South Carolinian, but I believe that it is time to remove the Confederate battle flag from all government spaces in our state. This would be a tangible, public pledge that we, as a society made up of different races in South Carolina, intend to live in peace and mutual respect with every member of this society.

Respectfully requested,

Celia [REDACTED]

With all due respect, it's time to take down the Confederate flag. All it does not is reinforce a stereotype of Southerners as racist hillbillies, and I'm sure that's not something that accurately reflects the modern culture. It has become an American swastika. Do this and you go down in history as being on the side of the angels. Please do this.

Please stop flying the Confederate flag at the capital. I read that you will probably discuss this possibility again (after the horrific murders of nine people in their church by a racist white man), but at this time your job is "to heal the people of this state". Apparently you just want to heal the white people. Healing all the people of your state would include removing the racist symbol of the Confederacy that is so painful to some of your citizens. Thank you.

I am ashamed as a life time citizen of South Carolina that a simble of such division would be displaid on our capital grounds in a time when so many in our state are grieving. Please remove this symble of division as a symble of our UNITY. Please do this for our state and to show the world that South Carolina is not a state of division. This is the biggest thing that you can do to heal your heart and to heal our state. Sincerly, Wanda [REDACTED]

<MSG>

I am a psychologist, and I've worked with many people who have a similar diagnosis to the man who murdered the 9 innocent people at the church on Wednesday. Though I always believe that better systems of mental health care could avert many of these tragedies, in this case I believe that the two things that would have most helped stopped this are better gun control legislation (could he have done this kind of damage with, say, a knife?) and the absence of a cultural context of racism. For God's sake-- take down that Confederate flag! Show you care about those families and about healing what has been broken here!

Dear Governor:

I am sure that you & the good citizens of your state are horrified by the hate-motivated killing of 9 innocent worshippers in a Charleston church recently. However, the continued flying of the Confederate battle flag in your capital city, a symbol of an armed insurrection against the United States, & representing a society which would have kept its fellow citizens in perpetual involuntary servitude, is an affront to the memories of the slain.

South Carolinians must do what they feel is right as guided by their consciences.

I am writing to inform you that my family is moving its annual golfing family reunion from our traditional meeting place of Myrtle Beach to a golf course in North Carolina, & we will not be planning another reunion in the Palmetto State until the hateful symbol of slavery & oppression is removed from its current location, and relegated to a museum, where it belongs. God bless you as you try to heal the wounds of your citizens.

Dear Governor Haley,

Stop flying a foreign government's war flag. This is the United States of America, and the Civil War was over 150 years ago. Black people are Americans, our brothers and sisters who have fought and died for this country. South Carolina should feel deep shame for perpetuating racism and making anyone feel "other" than fully respected, championed and loved.

Yours truly,

Governor Haley, If you truly care about the murders of those good people of the Emanuel A.M.E. Church in Charleston, you can prove it by showing leadership and taking down the symbol of hatred, The Confederate Flag that flies on State property in Columbia. If you do not do that, then you align yourself with the murderer and those like him that approve of the sign of hatred. The choice is yours. Show leadership or bow to racists. What is it going to be?

I know the governor doesn't have to power to remove the flag from the state house grounds, but as a lame duck governor who might not mind having some good national cred for the future, do it anyway. Just decide not to put it up tomorrow, and the next day etc etc etc.

Take it down, don't put it back up.

Say the person in charge of that is out sick or something. IT NEEDS TO COME DOWN.

In light of what happened at Mother Emanuel, how can anyone, including the governor, justify continuing to fly the Confederate flag at the State House? Please--take it down now! It's an outrage to continue this repugnant practice.

And, what is the state legislature going to do about gun control? What will it take?

 Gov. Haley,

In light of the recent killings in Charleston, it seems appropriate to revisit this issue. I respect history as much as the next person, but I respect my brothers and sisters in my state more. I know that you do too. If our legislators can't make a relevant decision on this topic then the people should be given a chance to speak. I think we all know what the people would say. It's time to put the stars and bars in our museums. What if that had been one of our family members? I can only imagine, how hurtful it must be for them to see this flying over the seat government in our state. Please do what you can to help remove the confederate flag from the statehouse. Almost everyone knows that this is the right thing to do and that it's removal is inevitable. Why leave this chore for our children? Let's be the one's to do it.

Thank you for your service,

David [REDACTED]

Correct me if I'm wrong but the civil war was over 150 years ago!

Please bring that gov of SC to your office and make sure she understands that it's 2015 and if they can't get on board w/ the concept of the UNITED States then all U.S. government funds will seize.

Thank you

I feel very sorry for you today Governor. That confederate flag flying at full mast today while the others are at half is a serious kick in the nuts to northerners, blacks, and foreigners alike. What an embarrassment for you. Its insanity. It symbolizes the underlying beliefs in SC white society that nurtured the mass murderers mentality. I am a buyer at a fortune 500 company with full discretion of where and from who I wish. I plan to cancel current and future orders with any company or vendor within the state of SC. Northern companies are going inflict a heavy price on your state for what has happened on this day.

I no longer live in South Carolina but grew up there and spent my early adult life there. The governor needs to exercise moral leadership by telling the General Assembly that it should vote to remove the Confederate flag from the statehouse grounds. Unfortunately It is (among other things) a symbol of hatred and terror, and South Carolina desperately needs to embrace symbols of inclusiveness, healing, and justice. Thank you.

Dear Governor Haley,

It is time for the State of South Carolina to accept the fact the South lost the Civil War and take down the Confederate flag from all it's government buildings. For those who say it is a symbol of their past history I agree. It is a very dark and shameful past of slavery and inhumanity. I am a former SC resident and my mother, 3 brothers and sister all live in the Charleston area. I have family who fought in the Civil War sadly on the side of the South. I also have more importantly someone who fought in the Revolutionary War (Revolutionary War Hero General Putnam) who fought for freedom of oppression and my father (WWII-The Cold War) and husband who fought for our country (Liberia, Gulf War and Iraq). They fought for freedom and equality not vestiges of oppression and racism. The Civil War is over. Slavery was bad. We lost. It is time for SC to get over it and move on. By doing so we will send a clear message that a modern South doesn't put-up with discrimination and racism, that all it's citizens will be treated as equals.

Sincerely,

Patti [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley:

I am an Indian American and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag, which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will, too, by removing the flag and taking other actions that demonstrate genuine support for Black and other marginalized people.

It would be a compassionate and wise thing to do to remove the Confederate Flag. In this day and age where racism is still rampant in our country, this symbol perpetuates the validity of these feelings. Something needs to be done to show that this is unacceptable.

On this day, Juneteenth, and following the dispecable act perpetrated by the white supremecist Dylan Roff at the Mother Emanuel AME church in Charleston, it seems apparent that you are out of touch or in denial about the level of racism that exists in your state and throughout our country as well. As a leader you have the capacity to impact this deep rooted, systematic problem in a positive way if you could just begin to shift the simplistic conversation that is currently happening within conservative circles. Please begin by taking down the very hateful and symbolic Confederate flag that now flies above your actual office. By doing so you might have a chance of actually making a difference for good in this world rather than perpetuating the hate and evil that exists in it.

Dear Governor Haley,

I can't imagine how hard it is for you and the other people of South Carolina following the terrible shooting there a few days ago. I just wanted to add my voice to the many others who feel an appropriate response to this terrorist act would be to change the state flag to one that is not a symbol of violent racial oppression.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this suggestion.

Dear Governor Haley,

I will not purchase goods or services from any South Carolina-based company or spend my vacation dollars in South Carolina until the confederate flag and all symbols of racism and violence against Americans are removed from the state house and all other official state offices.

The confederate flag is a symbol of terrorism and inspires fear. Just as I would not tolerate any state in our country flying a swastika I cannot abide the confederate flag flying over the state house in South Carolina. I will vote with my dollars and encourage others to do so as well.

Sincerely,

I am listening to KGO a San Francisco radio station which has a wide audience. The announcer let us, the public, know that the confederate flag is still flying from offices in South Carolina. In view of the recent killings of black innocents, when will the state decide that references to the Civil War and secession from the Union is not an appropriate thing to do. How can a culture (ours) move on to one of equality if this kind of symbol is allowed to be shown. It is not American, rather exclusionary. And one that continues to show utter disrespect to the whole of the US. I would like to hear from anyone in the Governor's office what her stand is on this. Thank you.

Dear Gov. Haley,

You seemed genuinely moved in your address to the media about the killing of 9 people in a church in Charleston. However, I think that government officials in SC are partially to blame for creating a climate of divisiveness and, ultimately, violence, by permitting the Confederate flag to be flown at the state capitol. I was outraged to hear that this is the case. It is a symbol of white supremacy, and belongs only in museums. Why does SC have an allegiance to, and embrace, an anachronistic racist era? Do you still take pride in the white supremacy positions of the Confederacy? Do you think you are attracting tourists? Frankly, I think your state needs to do some serious soul searching, stop creating a climate of divisiveness that promotes racism and violence, and move into the 21st century.

Dear Honorable Governor Haley - I'm writing you today from my adopted home state of Washington, in the aftermath of the senseless and heartbreaking massacre in Charleston. First with condolences for the local people there who are no doubt feeling this pain more sharply than those who are removed by greater distance, although for me the event still was deeply troubling. The second reason is that in reading the coverage in the media, I've come to learn that South Carolina still flies the Confederate 'Stars and Bars' flag on the grounds of your state capitol. In the name of all that is holy and just, I urge you to be heroic and be the one to lead the fight to forever remove and retire this vestige of the war between the states, symbolizing as it also does racism, hatred, terror, and white supremacy. It will be greatly healing for communities and race relations in your state. People can go see it in a museum if they wish or a bumper sticker, whatever, but the state shows poor judgement in helping to perpetuate this divisive icon. You will be met with some resistance in the process but it will be an act that is honored and remembered for years to come and it will help bridge the racial divide. So much healing still to do. respectfully, Robert Governor Haley: It strikes me as the height of hypocrisy for the State Government of South Carolina not to recognize the fact that it bears some responsibility for the massacre at Mother Emanuel. As Jon Stewart pointed out in his Thursday night program, South Carolina roads are named after Confederate generals and the Confederate flag flies over your state capital--- something with which you personally seem to have absolutely no problem. What happened Wednesday night were the actions of someone who felt entitled to kill---and don't think for one minute that your publicized opinions and your state's willingness to institutionalize and even honor blatant symbols of racism didn't feed into that paranoid sense of entitlement. And please don't even try to offer the usual apologist excuse often used whenever trappings linked with racism, murder---even genocide---are displayed: "It's history." If you wouldn't dream of flying the Nazi swastika over your state capital, you likewise shouldn't be displaying the Confederate flag. The Confederacy was as much about keeping slaves in chains as it was about state's rights. You know it; every Southerner and US citizen with a modicum of education knows it.

Take down that flag: It's a disgusting slap in the face to the wonderful people who died at Mother Emanuel.

Thank you for your time.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I have lived in South Carolina for the last 10 years, and have grown to love it here. I am proud of our state for many things. I teach 3rd grade, and love teaching the rich history of SC. In light of the tragic events that occurred in Charleston, don't you think it is high time the state decided to remove the confederate flag from the State House? I feel like it makes it seem to others that the state is holding on to the racial prejudices of the past, and while I understand that SC has done many great things to overcome them, this is not what the world sees. And to those sick individuals that continue to hate based on skin color and resort to violence to act on that hatred, this symbol seems to fuel their hatred. Let's make it known to the world that SC does not condone this backward thinking of the past! Thanks for all you do to make SC a great place to live!

Please remove the confederate flag from the capital. I actually cant believe you would even allow the reminder of oppression on black bodies. Also, change your street names from confederate soldiers to something more uplifting.. Maybe to the names of the members of your communities who were murdered. Just stop upholding white power and racist practices.

Your first act after the church massacre in Charleston should have been to take down the Confederate flag flying over S. Carolina's State Capitol. This is not the first murder performed by a person wearing the "Stars and Bars" on their hat, car, or in their front yard. My ancestors come from Confederate States but my parents never, thank goodness, passed that "tradition" on to us. The flag is being used - and badly - by home-grown, domestic terrorists. It has lost any other historical meaning.

Remove the Confederate flag from state government offices.

Governor,

I have read that in response to the murders in Charleston that the USA and SC flags at the capital were at half mast.

If what I read was true, the Confederate flag was NOT at half mast and I am embarrassed for your State.

My state, NC was involved in that schism from 150 years ago and I am embarrassed by those who wave it here.

Best to all in SC! Love your state!

Texas has a strong Confederate history also. However, in today's climate of racial unrest and the recent tragedy in Charleston, I beseech you to do what you can to see that the appropriate legislation is introduced into the S. Carolina legislature to have the flag either removed from government property or, at least reduce its presence, as we have here.

Thank you, in advance, for your attention to this matter.

Dear Governor Haley,

I can't understand why the Confederate flag has been tolerated at all on government and tax payer property. It is hateful, and many people around the country, such as myself, have no respect for public servants who will not speak out against it. If a citizen wants to be hateful towards his fellow citizen, let him do it on his property, and not be enabled by a body who should hold the most noble moral standards.

Thank You,
Pamela [REDACTED]

Dear Senator Haley,

My husband and I no longer live in Columbia, South Carolina, but we used to. He still has family there and we visit at least once a year.

Sometimes it's really hard to see the dysfunction in your own family. I know my husband and I are able to pick out crazy things from each other's families that seemed normal to us because that's just how we grew up. And the more you're away from your family, the more you can see when you reunite.

It's kind of like that with the confederate flag. Much can be said about it's cultural value to white Southerners, but, ultimately, revering a symbol that hurts black people and reminds them of their inhumane past will never bring racial reconciliation to South Carolina. Ever. And it's really crazy to us "expats" that it still flies.

Maybe you know. Maybe you feel the same way, but there are people who got you into power and are keeping you in power to whom you are beholden. I am BEGGING you to do the right thing. To put human souls before power. To risk something of consequence so that this state can start to heal.

I am a Christian. I think you are, too. If Jesus came to South Carolina today, whose "southern hospitality" would He accept? Which tables would He overturn? Whom would He call "whitewashed graves"? I'm afraid of the answer; it doesn't bode well for me or my friends.

Thank you for reading this and for thinking about it.

Best,

Masha [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the racially charged recent events in the Charleston area - first, the gunning down of an unarmed black man in N. Charleston by a white police officer and most recently, the savage murders of 9 black people in a church, practicing the Christian faith - I respectfully ask that you make these horrible events into an opportunity to do good. Take the flag down. Please do what it takes to take it down. At its best, it is nostalgia for a time in American history that needs to be just that: history. At its worst, it is a symbol of a slavery-approving, repressive regime whose fight for recognition was fortunately doomed from the start. We all as Americans need to move on. Thank you for the opportunity to comment, and thank you for the personal sympathy you have shown to the survivors of the shootings. Sincerely, Allison [REDACTED]

It is time the Confederate Flag be placed where it belongs. It needs to be in your historical museum and not on your government building because it is the NOW that is important. There have been a great number of people of color that have died in foreign countries to protect Americans and it is now time to recognize that people of all faiths, colors and backgrounds are Americans. When those 9 innocents were murdered by this man we all became black in color and felt the pain. Do your job. Recognize your wonderful history but also recognize its failures. My Dad was born in S.C. and was a WWII veteran and is so embarrassed by the behavior of our Southern brothers and sisters with regard to racism and gun control. It is time you as one of our national leaders take a stand at the risk of losing your seat. Have the guts to take on the NRA in your State and admit you have problems with race. Make your mark in history in a good way.

It's time to take down the Confederate flag over your capital. That flag is a symbol of people who wanted to maintain slavery in your state. In light of the recent racial shooting in the black church, you as governor need to show some compassion and leadership and do what you know is right. Begin by taking down that flag.

This emblem of white supremacy should be taken down out of respect for the dead and to let the living know that black lives matter. I will not be visiting South Carolina due to your continued attempts to respect tradition by insulting blacks and supporting white supremacy. Mary [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

I just wonder what lack of intelligence is at work that Republicans like yourself continue to fly a symbol of the most disgusting racist way of life?

If someone can explain why being deeply stupid like this is so valued, please respond.

As an American, it is totally embarrassing.

We are celebrating the 150th anniversary of the Civil War, and the State of South Carolina still flies the Confederate flag over the state house. And African Americans still die in your state as an example of racial hate. No wonder I have no interest in ever visiting your state. Why don't you come to Oregon and see where there is a multi-cultural society where we respect one another. The least you could do is take the flag down and start living in the 21st century. Yes, people and societies can change. Isn't about time the people of South Carolina took a good look at themselves and realize how they are viewed by the outside world and did some changing also?

How sincere are you? I looked and was listening to when you were telling everyone how you wanted the people in South Carolina to heal because of the gruesome murders committed at the African Methodist Church there. This was done by someone who has been brain washed with hate beginning in the State of Carolina. He grew up with hearing about hate for Black people in his home and outside his home. How can you get on TV and tell people you want them to heal and you are permitting that confederate flag to fly over the state capital? This is a disgrace. This flag displays nothing but hate. We are in the year of 2015.....SHAME ON YOU.

Please move to take down the confederate flag. While I understand some attachment to it as a symbol of history, it is more frequently and painfully known as a symbol of racism, violence, and intolerance. Given the grief we are currently experiencing it is especially mortifying as a South Carolinian, to see our states' elected officials trying to justify in the national media its continued presence on our state capitol grounds. I saw you cry on TV, and I was happy to see you expressing some of the sorrow we all feel at the horrific acts of the past days. Imagine the additional pain of every African-American citizen in the state (and many of our white citizens as well, including myself) when they also see that flag waved in their faces. It is like fingernails on a blackboard, and a wound that won't heal as long as it remains. I can't help but believe in your heart you know it is the right thing to do. Please be brave and get rid of it.

This is NOT a complex issue. It is all about racism, pure and simple.

I join in solidarity with each and every one of your constituents who mourns the loss of the nine people who were murdered in Charleston by a cowardly act of terrorism. You and the state of South Carolina owe those families and every single other family who has ever been scarred by racial hatred and oppression the common decency and humanity of removing the Confederate flag once and for all. What some say they construe to be a mark of heritage and pride is instead a reminder that bigotry is alive and well, and sanctioned by the state. You have the power to make a real change in this world, and I urge you to use that leadership: make it clear that deeming others less is not tolerated, that we all are responsible to treat each other equally, and that #blacklivesmatter. That flag must come down.

Governor, if you truly want to promote healing, work with Senator Graham to have the confederate Battle flag removed from state property. The Civil War happened over 150 years ago. It is time to grow up, South Carolina, and admit that this flag encourages racism and murder. Until you do, I have no desire to visit your beautiful state and support South Carolina tourism. Thank you.

Dear Governor Haley, I would like to respectfully but firmly state that, as a white citizen of this country, I am ashamed that a state government still flies a flag that is hurtful to all of us. The confederate flag is an overt symbol of a racism that continues to take its toll in this world; it provides encouragement to people who see their history and their future as one of animosity and hatred towards others. Please, take a stand against those whose goal is keeping the division between the races of our country strong. Be a governor that aids in the healing process. Thank you.

As a young boy growing up in the north, I never had much of an interest in history. Over the past year, however, I have read more than a dozen books about the Civil War. The accounts of the war have struck a very deep and emotional chord for me. In my readings, I have never seen evidence that the Confederate flag represents a "hatred of blacks", as has been proclaimed by the press in the past two days. I think the Confederate flag is a symbol of historical significance and should fly proudly over all the state capitols that once belonged to the Confederate States of America.

As a former Palmetto State resident (Barnwell and Hilton Head Island) I respectfully request you schedule immediate action to take down the confederate flag which flies on the grounds of the South Carolina capitol. Its new home is better suited to the South Carolina state archives for historical preservation. This flag and all it represents has no place in modern day South Carolina and the lives of all who look to the capitol as a source of governance for and by all its people.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Haley:

I'm writing personally to ask you to immediately remove the Confederate flag flying in the seat of your government. This request is unrelated to politics; I am not African American & am writing from Florida. Neither of us can undo the heinous, race-based shooting that took place in N. Charleston. But you can immediately act to remove from the state house, the flag that does not and should not represent your government today. It is part of our history and if these flags are in state historical museums, so be it.

Your failure to act immediately to remove this symbol of oppression that has no place in today's government is tantamount to being part of the problem in promoting racist culture and violence. This something you can do, and I believe you owe it to your state and country to do it-today.

Sincerely,

Dr. Stephanie [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley~

I am writing to you today because I am concerned about the message our state is sending when we have the confederate flag flying high above our state house when the state is dealing with the untimely deaths of those at Mother Emanuel's church in Charleston. My father, along with his 11 siblings, were born and raised in SC. He served this country for freedom. I was raised in South Carolina and my roots run deep in the state. Even though I live in a different state now, I am a proud South Carolinian. It would be a glorious day if and when that flag comes down. I believe our state has ugly truths that we look past, and you Gov. Haley have the power to remove some of that ugly truth. I hope you find it in your heart to address the situation, and if not, it should be done out of respect for those 9 who died, without warning, for OUR freedom. May God bless our beautiful state!

Dear Governor Haley,

I am not one of your constituents, but that is an incredible relief because your government's policy of flying the symbol of the most horrific armed insurgency ever perpetrated against the United States of America is appalling and embarrassing. Or ought to be. There should be no pride in finding yourself on the wrong side of the easiest moral question in the history of the world - slavery. For you to pretend to be shocked at the disgusting racism in your midst, while flying its banner, is the height of irony. No one in their right mind thinks that flag stands for anything but white supremacy, racism, and regret for the ultimate defeat of an evil economic model. It's shameful and enough is enough.

Sincerely,

The same flag that flies at the South Carolina state capitol was prominently displayed on the car of a mass murdering racist.

I am writing to ask you to use your good offices to encourage the Assembly to take down the confederate flag that continues to fly on the statehouse grounds. At this time of mourning for those who were murdered at Mother Emmanuel Church, to continue to allow a symbol of hate and pain to fly is the height of insensitivity.

The Confederate flag is a cancer on the South, and it is a racist symbol. Flying it at half-mast to "honor" the nine slain individuals in the church is no different than the Nazis flying the swastika at half-mast to "honor" the slain Jews during WWII.

There are sixteen white supremacist organizations in South Carolina. Disgusting! The recent slaying of the nine was a racist hate act; it had nothing to do with religion.

I am deeply ashamed of your state flying the confederate flag over the capital in South Carolina. You are embarrassing the entire country and in light of the recent events in Charleston you need to revisit this symbol of hatred and racism and do the right thing to move our nation forward.

Governor Haley,

The Confederate battle flag should not be displayed on government property. It is disrespectful to the United States and her citizens, particularly minorities and should not be officially tolerated. I know that yourself and the SC legislature will make the right decision. Thank you for your time.

When the Confederate Flag still flies...you have no hope of equality , understanding or love between races. It is a tribute to a hate filled manifesto and movement...that should have been long buried and constantly denied rebirth.

Please take it down.

Sincerely,

A Citizen

I am South Asian American and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag. It is a symbol of hate and racist ideology. As a South Asian American, I stand against racist and inequity. I hope you will to.
