scstateparks A MAJOR hat tip to @vanzeppelinaerial for capturing this impeccable footage of Table Rock State Park! Comment a "👍" if you love Table Rock as much as we do! . . . PLEASE NOTE: If you are interested in bringing a drone to a South Carolina state park, you must contact the park you are interested in directly and receive permission. Drones are not permitted at Table Rock State Park during peregrine falcon breeding season(March-July).

vanzeppelinaerial I appreciate the share! I've hiked Table Rock many times over the years, often in search of this particular shot. I'm very pleased with the end result. Regardless of the season, Table Rock is one of our most scenic locations in SC. Always a worthy payoff for the sometimes strenuous climb at the end!

inletguy1020 Rain or shine, I'll be there this weekend! Any chance of the trail getting closed because of the rain? The woman I'm going with doesn't like to hike in the rain! 😊 doublehknives A REQUIRED climb for wifey and I when we visit. We can look over what used to be my family's farm. If you've never made this climb and looked out over God's front porch I feel sorry for you.
