Thank you for arranging the meeting. I will be present and prepared. Please understand that what we will discuss is time sensitive, so if an earlier appointment in December becomes available, it would allow the Governor more time to plan her strategy for how to wage her budget war with Washington.

Subject: Governor Haley Meeting

Good evening,

Katherine Veldran passed along your request to meet with Governor Haley to discuss how she can move SRS forward in the current difficult federal budget situation. The Governor has a very tight schedule over the next few weeks, but she has agreed to meet with you in her office on December 19, 2013 at 10:15 AM to discuss this matter. Please let me know if this date and time works well for you and all those involved. I will hold this date on the Governor's calendar, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you,
Nicole
