

From: StateScoop <news=statescoop.com@mail35.wdc01.mcdlv.net> on behalf of StateScoop <news@statescoop.com>
Sent: Thursday, July 14, 2016 11:03 AM
To: Haley, Nikki
Subject: N.C. gov. signs controversial police video bill. Broadband advocates push for high speeds in anchor institutions. Alabama updates EHR, data security.

Try the Web Version if images aren't loading properly.

Right-click here to download pictures. To help protect your privacy, Outlook prevented automatic download of this picture from the Internet.

Thursday, July 14, 2016

Right-click here to download pictures. To help protect your privacy, Outlook prevented automatic download of this picture from the Internet.

North Carolina gov. signs controversial bill severely limiting access to police video

Gov. Pat McCrory approved a bill to keep all police video in the state secret, unless a judge steps in and gets involved.

GET THE FULL SCOOP >>

Right-click here to download pictures. To help protect your privacy, Outlook prevented automatic download of this picture from the Internet.

Right-click here to download pictures. To help protect your privacy, Outlook prevented automatic download of this picture from the Internet.

Broadband access advocates kick off push to bring gigabit speeds to anchor institutions

Alabama updates HR software, data security to improve efficiency

The Schools, Health and Libraries Broadband Coalition is laying out steps communities and governments can take to bring broadband speeds to the people who need them the most.

Read More >>

The updated software will save the state money as resources become more connected, state CIO Joanne Hale said.

Read More >>

AWS partners with California groups to host agriculture app competition

Competitors will create sensor-enabled apps to help farmers do things like track water use and fight insect invasions. The teams will present their work at the California State Fair.

Read More >>

Contractor adds cyber 'secret sauce' service to GSA contract vehicle for state and local governments

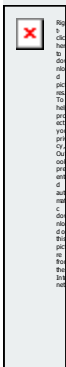

ECS is a DHS program that allows internet and telecom providers to offer security services incorporating the NSA's "secret sauce" — threat signatures and other indicators that show hackers at work.

Read More >>

Scoop News Group debuts cybersecurity publication CyberScoop

CyberScoop launches with a digital newsletter featuring articles and events related to protecting electronic data. The full news site is scheduled to launch in August 2016.

Read More >>

July 14, 2016 Tech Modernization in America's Courts
Online Webinar
Presented by StateScoop

REGISTER

View Details +

July 19, 2016 Smart Integration for Faster Innovation
Online Webinar
Presented by StateScoop

REGISTER

View Details +

StateScoop is a State & Local government IT media company, a one stop news source and the government IT community's platform for education and collaboration

StateScoop - 1150 18th St. NW Suite 850, Washington, DC 20036

This email was sent to nikkihaley@gov.sc.gov
why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences
StateScoop · 1150 18th Street NW · Washington, DC 20036 · USA