Subject: Join me for NABE tax reform webinar 2/2

---

Dear Katherine,

Lawmakers are weighing "border adjustments" as part of broad tax reform. This change would shift tax burden from exports to imports, either raising or cutting costs for businesses depending on the industry.

I will be joining Jack Kleinhenz, Chief Economist of the National Retail Federation, in a webinar discussion this Thursday, February 2 offered by the National Association for Business Economics. We will be discussing changes in business taxation and the possible economic impacts.

The webinar will begin at 2 p.m. ET and will be moderated by Ed Kean, Senior Economic Policy Analyst at the Observatory Group and Co-Chair of the NABE Policy Roundtable. You can register on the NABE website by clicking here.

Best regards,

Fred Treyz
