Dear Sir/Ma'am,

<https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/390932500> ▪ USAJobs Link. The only way to apply for this position/opportunity.

Please help us get the word out on this opportunity with the Columbia VA Regional Office. The VA Regional Office is committed to hiring Veterans and are posting Rating Veterans Service Representative (RVSR), for a very limited time. The position will start at the GS-9 level, with promotion potential to a GS-12, which is approximately $68,809. This is full time federal employment.

We are looking for individuals that have attention to detail, are savvy with operating computers, and who possess logical thinking skills. There will be a lot of sedentary work in a production type of environment using web based computer applications. That said, this is a great position for those seeking a career in the VA who possess nursing or law degrees, or meet the qualifications specified in the announcement found at the link.

This posting will only be open for 3 days, beginning today, January 12th. Please closely review the duties and qualification at the link below and if you successfully apply and meet the criteria below, please send a response to: resume.vbacms@va.gov and let us know that you've applied and specify which criteria below applies. Note: if you previously applied for the Claims Assistant position, you may still apply for this or other openings if you meet the qualifications outlined in the USAJOBS posing. The bulleted information below just lets us know if you would qualify for other recruitment authorities, so please let us know if you apply and meet any criteria below.

- Disabled veterans; or
- Veterans who served on active duty in the armed forces during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized; or
- Veterans who, while serving on active duty in the armed forces, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces Service Medal was awarded; or
- Veterans separated from active duty in the past 3 years.
