Law enforcement agencies tap open data mapping tool. Officials worry of 'cool kids club' with innovation jobs.

Not rendering correctly? View this email as a web page here.

Friday, Oct. 7, 2016
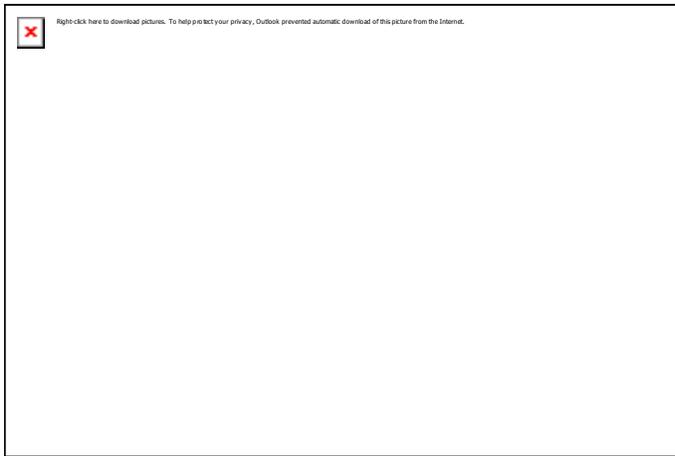

Feedback wanted: Sacramento CIO asks for help making IT guide for cities

Sacramento Chief Innovation Officer Abhi Nemani is asking city leaders to help draft a set of best practices for government to connect with the growing market of tech companies targeting the public sector.

GET THE FULL SCOOP >>

1,100+ law enforcement agencies using open data mapping tool

Socrata revamped a popular tool that helps police departments share crime data with the public.

Read More >>

New innovative positions creating 'cool kids club,' officials worry

We need to empower the right people in agencies and avoid creating a "cool kids club," D.C. CTO Archana Vemulapalli said.

Read More >>

How Nebraska kickstarted consolidation with the network

Nebraska's chief information officer merged the state's network staff, streamlined operations, and prepared for rapid consolidation across the enterprise — all within six months.

Read More >>

October 11, 2016 Maximizing the Potential of Body Cameras
Online Webinar
Presented by StateScoop

REGISTER

View Details +
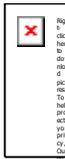

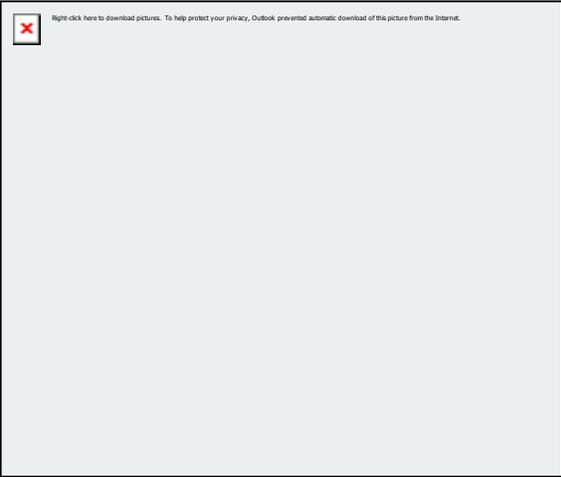

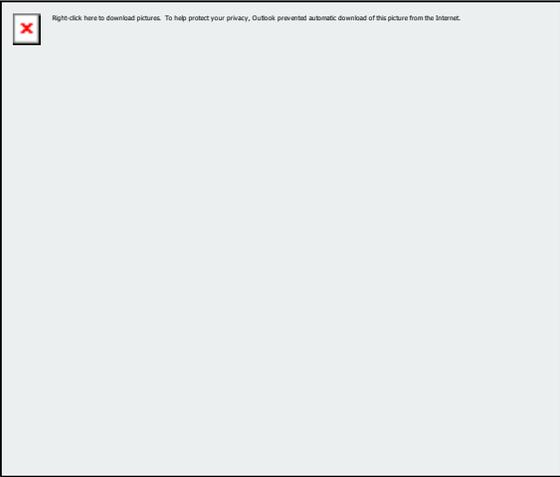

StateScoop is a State & Local government IT media company, a one stop news source and the government IT community's platform for education and collaboration