Have to say I was unaware of the last encounter....

Major and I are about to take off. Adding my colleague Caroline Horn who will take it from here...

I'm happy to discuss this with you tomorrow, but, I have to say, I'm surprised to hear from Major's team, given our last interaction with him.

(Also - for your planning purposes - the governor visits Gaston, S.C.'s Frances Mack Intermediate school tomorrow at 2 PM for an education-focused policy announcement. After the event, the governor will hold a media avail, and I imagine reporters will turn out to ask her about last night's address. If y'all need sound from her, that's a place to get it.)

Chaney and Rob –

Arden Farhi here from the CBS Evening News. I am Major Garrett's producer.

I understand the governor is scheduled to appear on CBS This Morning tomorrow.

We were wondering if she would also be willing to tape an interview with Major for tomorrow's CBS Evening News.

Would her schedule allow for an afternoon interview to talk about her speech? We'll be in Charleston, but would consider heading to Columbia (or wherever she is) if she's available.

Thanks very much –

Arden
