

When there was no substantial physical or midwife, then the father, householder, etc., should make this report of stillbirth before the sixth month of pregnancy.