Subject: DHEC

Hey Chaney,

I left a voicemail but am following up here. This is for tomorrow's paper.

I'm writing a story about DHEC's proposed changes to the way abortions are regulated in the state. Among other things, DHEC is proposing that married women who live with their husbands get written consent from their husbands before getting an abortion. The proposed changes also include mandatory STD testing for anyone seeking to get an abortion.

I was wondering if the governor suggested these changes to DHEC? And if she didn't, if she supports them.

Thanks so much!
