

From: Lily Cogdill <LilyCogdill@scstatehouse.gov>
To: Danny Varat <DannyVarat@scstatehouse.gov>
Date: 5/22/2017 1:58:56 PM
Subject: Please Advise

National Lieutenant Governors Association

Lt. Governor Kevin Bryant
P.O. Box 142
Columbia, SC 29202

May 18, 2017

Dear Lt. Governor Bryant:

Your coach airfare and hotel room for Tues, Wed, Thur are reimbursed as a first time attendee. Please contact Ann at NLGA now: athelen@nlga.us or 859-283-1400.

We invite you to join us July 26 – 28, 2017, in a city celebrating its 5th year as a top travel destination in the world! We echo the National Lieutenant Governors Association (NLGA) mailers you received earlier encouraging you to connect and charge up at this Annual Meeting.

The NLGA is your professional group and this meeting will feature more than 20 peers overviewing proven programs with possible value in your state or territory. It's personal in benefitting your constituents, but it's about all of us also.

With a backdrop in Music City, we'll explore how other seconds-in-command make use of their office. We will discover ideas and develops relationship to improve our states and nation! And, we'll enjoy comradery visiting Nashville's #1 Must See Destination Wednesday and the Country Music Hall of Fame Thursday.

If you have a question, contact any of us or NLGA at (859) 283-1400. View the meeting plans at www.nlga.us and reserve a hotel room now by calling 615-620-2150. We will see you there!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Dan McKee'.

Lt. Governor Dan McKee, Rhode Island
NLGA Chair
(401) 222-2371

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Matt Michels'.

Lt. Governor Matt Michels, South Dakota
NLGA Chair Elect
(605) 773-3661

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'John A. Sanchez'.

Lt. Governor John Sanchez, New Mexico
NLGA Treasurer
(505) 476-2250

Lily Cogdill

*Director of Administration
Office of Lieutenant Governor
P.O. Box 142
Columbia, S.C. 29201
Ph. 803.734.2079
lilycogdill@scstatehouse.gov*