Hi,

I was browsing State Of South Carolina Lieutenant Governor's website looking for info on disaster preparation and saw this page here:

<http://ltgov.sc.gov/Emergency%20Preparedness/Pages/default.aspx>

It's nice to see that you have a page that provides useful content about emergencies. We at Coupon Chief have just created a massive guide titled "How to Save on Emergency Supplies – Disaster Prep on a Budget." It includes up-to-date information and special tips to help prepare families for emergencies.

Can I send you the link to the guide? We're hoping you could help us spread the word by sharing and linking to it. :)

Thanks in advance for your consideration!

Bailey
