Governor Haley,

My name is Harley Mitchum, a lady who needs your help.

I am sure you have heard about the mortgage fraud that has permeated South Carolina. Despite the fact that Judge Jean Towles and our Attorney General Alan Wilson have done some investigation of the subject, there has been very little change about the matter. For almost 6 years, my 88 year old mother, who is disabled is a victim of "foreclosure fraud". Her case involves robo-signing, false seals, unlawful corporate seals, tainted file, where someone else's legal document is in with her file, no original "wet ink" signature to show who is "holder in due course", a "Lost Mortgage Satisfaction" with an unlawful Corporate Seal stamped on it.

There have been multiple threats from a judge against myself and my mother. One of the judges told me that he would arrest me and put me in jail if he saw me in the Clerk of Court office & I was filing any papers on my mother's behalf & he would put me in jail for 5 years. There is much more information. I have Durable Power of Attorney over my mother & I am her caretaker, but, a certain judge won't let me speak on her behalf, nor, her, as well. Where has being treated fairly and honestly gone to; has she died?

I would like to meet with you to discuss this matter in further detail. I am not asking that you act as a lawyer, but, try and gather up some helpers in the Government so that we can be proud of our beautiful state and stop this painful fraud. I will bring documents for you to view.

Please let me know when I can meet with you. Time is of the essence, as we have a Summary Judgment court date April 14th, 2015.

Sincerely,

Harley Mitchum
