- performance at The Cutting Room will take place at 7:30pm and Luba will be accompanied by her MIXTURA band including Felipe Fournier on vibraphone and percussion who also serves as Luba's musical director, Rafael Rosa on guitar, Dan Martinez on bass, Joel Mateo on drums and Sara Caswell on violin.

"Luba Mason is a force of nature...She goes deep and we want to dive with her."
- Huffington Post

"A celestial voice." - Los Angeles Times

"A voice as big and rich as a star-filled night sky." - Jazz Times

A master vocalist with virtuoso chops, Luba has created her new CD, MIXTURA as a "genre-bending" musical journey. "MIXTURA is a message about the importance of art as a medium of freedom of expression and life without boundaries, says Mason, "A blend of different musical currents."

Produced by the Yellowjackets' Jimmy Haslip, MIXTURA features 12 different tracks including 4 originals - 3 penned by Luba herself - in which she uses her voice as an instrument, one that is finely tuned and able to accomplish breathtaking vocal feats. From the soft, breathy Brazilian ballad "On The 4th Of July" featuring Dori Caymmi and Kenny Loggins, to the wildly, range - defying soulful renditions of standards such as "Love For Sale" and "All That Jazz," to the jazzy feel of Van Morrison's classic "Moondance" (on which Mason is splendidly accompanied by Al Jarreau), Mason proves she can master a wildly diverse range of sounds.

As a recording artist, Luba has released two critically-acclaimed albums: COLLAGE (PS Classics), a beautiful marriage of Latin, pop, jazz and poetry, and KRAZY LOVE, (Sunnyside Records), debuting her impressive songwriting skills and executing a cool, Brazilian jazz sound. Having toured the US and abroad, some highlights include opening for Wayne Shorter, Danilo Perez and Chucho Valdes at the Panama Jazz Festival, sold-out shows at Dizzy's Coca Cola and The Blue Note in NY, Yoshi's in Oakland, Radio City Music Hall with Paul Simon, and last November joining her husband, Ruben Bladés at Jazz at Lincoln Center with Wynton Marsalis and his band.
