Dear Talon,

Thank you for your letter to the governor of South Carolina. Your letter has arrived at a very unique time for our state government's executive branch!

As you may be aware, our current governor, Nikki Haley, has been nominated to fill the position of Ambassador to the United Nations and plans to submit her resignation once the appointment is confirmed by the United States Senate. Upon her resignation, the Lieutenant Governor, Henry McMaster, will become South Carolina's new governor. Due to these circumstances, I regret that the governor is not able to respond to your letter personally. I hope the enclosed items prove helpful, though, and encourage you to visit www.scstatehouse.gov, www.sciway.net and www.discoverouthcarolina.com to learn more.

Sincerely,

Leanna DuPree
