The First Tee of Greater Charleston is a youth development organization whose goal is to positively impact the lives of our local youth by utilizing the game of golf to promote life-enhancing values found inherently in the game, such as honesty, integrity and respect. To date, we have reached more than 750 youth, ages 7-18, throughout the Greater Charleston community, with a goal of reaching many more in 2010. However, it requires the generous contributions of money, time and talent from businesses and individuals to sustain our efforts and positively impact our youth of today and tomorrow's leaders.
