Ok, yes you should ask Emily. They should be able to get a redline us early Mon am.

We should keep our version as close to the same as possible unless SDE has a good reason why it should be changed.

Okay, but as an FYI they removed the specific language Gov. Haley wanted to add related to no longer passing 3rd graders who can't read. That is why I asked for the red line, to see exactly what else they took out. Because Gov. Haley asked for this language specifically, she is going to have to sign off on a version that removes it. In the interim, I will go ahead and ask Emily why they made the changes they did, unless you advise otherwise.

Katherine-

We would like the opportunity to send a formal recommendation on the qualifications and accountability structure of K-12 next week. For the time being, our proposed changes to the letter are attached. Please let us know your thoughts.

Thank you,
Emily

Emily,

Please see the attached drafts of the joint letter, the joint resolution, and the qualifications language for the Superintendent of Education. Each document is in word form so that you may track changes and comment on the language. We look forward to your feedback and will keep you posted on the overall legislative action plan.

We appreciate all of your support. Please let us know if you need anything.

Thank you,
Katherine
