Dear Sir/Madam:

Central Court records indicate that, pursuant to Sections 17-22-950 and 17-01-40 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, you are entitled to have all records relating to the criminal/traffic offense (referenced in the enclosed Order) destroyed at no cost to you.

~~It has been ordered that all records relating to an expunged arrest/court summons and subsequent discharge, pursuant to the above-referenced section, be dismissed, expunged and immediately destroyed and that no evidence of such records pertaining to such charge shall be retained by any municipal, county or state agency except nonpublic information retained by SC Law Enforcement Division (SLED).~~

Enclosed, find your certified copy of the signed Order. Please retain this copy for your private records. In compliance with SC State law, once the Order has been executed, no further information will be available to anyone.

You may check the status of your expungement on the Internet at the following link:

<http://www4.rcgov.us/PublicIndex/Default.aspx>

You may also check at the following link: www.richlandonline.com click "On Line Services" and then "Public Index."

Once on this page, click the "Summary Court" and then click "accept" at the bottom of the page. Type in your case number at the top right (no spaces or dashes and make sure to type any letter, examples are Z000000, 00000DZ).

Then, click "search public index." If your case has been expunged, you will receive the following message: Your Search Did Not Return Any Records.

You may wish to check this index from time to time to view your case status.

Sincerely,

Richland County Central Court
