Hi Kevin,

I was nice to meet you and Ann at the Senate caucus meeting tonight. We didn't get to talk long but I found we had three things in common: 1) we were successful with our career and life and still progressing, 2) we have three children, and 3) we married up.

Ann discussed her problem with wearing contact lenses. I have a solution that might help her at least be able to wear contacts at events and meetings. You got whisked away before I could finish talking to her. Please forward this Email to her.

Thank you again for your service to our state.
