Robert E. McNair, Governor of South Carolina and Lester G. Maddox, Governor of Georgia

WHEREAS, the Honorable William T. Jones, Solicitor, Eighth Judicial Circuit of South Carolina, has on January 3, 1970, made application to this office for an executive order seeking the temporary transfer of

DONNIE JOE BURKETT, presently serving a ten year sentence at the Georgia Training and Development Center, Buford, Georgia, to the temporary custody of the Sheriff of Laurens County, R. Eugene Johnson, (or his authorized deputy), for the term of Court commencing February 23, 1970, in order that the State of South Carolina, by and through the Solicitor of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, or his assistants, may have and enjoy the beneficial presence of the said DONNIE JOE BURKETT, as a vital and necessary defendant in the case of the State of South Carolina vs.
DONNIE JOE BURKETT, for his trial on the charge of Housebreaking, Larceny and Receiving Stolen Goods in Laurens County, and

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina and Laurens County do hereby agree to bear all expenses incurred in connection with the necessary travel and maintenance of the said DONNIE JOE BURKETT from the custody of the Georgia Training and Development Center, located at Buford, Georgia, to the County of Laurens, South Carolina, and return;

THEREFORE, I, Robert E. McNair, Governor of the State of South Carolina, considering it meet and proper in the circumstances, hereby respectfully request the delivery of the said DONNIE JOE BURKETT to the Sheriff of Laurens County, R. Eugene Johnson, (or his authorized deputy), who is hereby appointed agent on the part of the State of South Carolina to receive the said DONNIE JOE BURKETT for the purposes hereinabove set out.

EXECUTIVE ORDER AND PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it has been made to appear to my satisfaction that there presently exists on the campus of the University of South Carolina, an institution of higher learning located in the City of Columbia, County of Richland, State of South Carolina, a state of emergency, and

WHEREAS, there is now being committed acts of violence and threats of violence and there is now being manifested a common disregard for law which prevents the normal and proper operations of the University of South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, the said acts interfere with the academic freedom and educational processes of the large majority of students desiring to pursue their education at the University of South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, these acts and threats prevent the administration and faculty of the University of South Carolina from carrying out their responsibilities at the University of South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned disorders are of such a general nature that they constitute a danger to the persons and property of all citizens, most especially those engaged in attempting to pursue their academic endeavors, and those which threaten the peace and tranquility as well as the public property of this state, NOW, THEREFORE,

PURSUANT TO THE CONSTITUTION, STATUTES, AND LAWS OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, and upon request from the Administration of the University of South Carolina, and in order to minimize the danger of life, limb, and property, and protect the rights of those students desiring to further their education, I do hereby declare that a state of emergency does exist on the campus of the University of South Carolina and, I do hereby authorize, order and direct:

1. That any and all law enforcement officers of the state and its subdivisions and all other persons in authority do whatever may be necessary to maintain peace and good order within the area hereinbefore described until a state of emergency is declared by me no longer to exist; and

2. That pursuant to the above granted authority any law enforcement officer shall have the right to order any persons congregated in groups of six or more to disperse forthwith; and that entry upon the campus of the University of South Carolina shall be limited to students, members of the faculty, staff and employees, all of whom must have identification cards or specific authorization of the administrative officials of the University of South Carolina, or the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division; and

3. That a curfew be established between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. during which period no person shall be authorized to be on the campus except in their dormitory without a special written permit signed by the President of the University of South Carolina or his duly designated representative, or the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division or his duly designated representative; and

4. That each student, during the hours of curfew is to remain in his dormitory and all students not residing on the campus shall be required to vacate the campus during these hours; and

5. That upon the demand of either the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, the Administration of the University of South Carolina, or the Chief of Police of the University of South Carolina, to vacate any building located in and upon the campus of the University of South Carolina, any person must vacate the building designated by the demand; and

6. That the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, J. P. Strom, is hereby authorized to issue any such directive and order as he may deem necessary to implement this Order and Proclamation; and

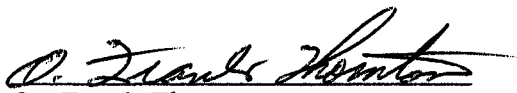

7. The provisions of this Executive Order and Proclamation shall remain in effect until such time as it is rescinded by me.

EXECUTIVE ORDER AND PROCLAMATION

The Executive Order and Proclamation heretofore issued by me on the 11th day of May, 1970, is hereby amended so as to enlarge the area described in my previous Order and Proclamation dated May 11, 1970, and the following described area is hereby declared to be the area within which a state of emergency exists:

That area bounded by: the North side of Pendleton Street; the East side of Assembly Street; the North side of Whaley Street; and the East side of Pickens Street; and any and all property of the University of South Carolina located in Richland County.

The Executive Order and Proclamation of May 11, 1970, is further amended by adding thereto:

To avoid hardship and to insure that no person will be unduly restricted, the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, J. P. Strom, may authorize such exceptions to the restrictions and conditions set forth in the previous Order as he may deem advisable.

The Executive Order and Proclamation of May 11, 1970, is further amended by substituting in lieu of paragraph 2 thereof the following:

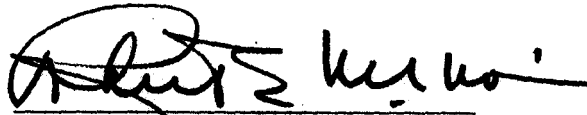

That pursuant to the above granted authority, and within the above described areas, any law enforcement official shall have the right to order any persons congregating in groups of six or more to disperse; and that entry upon the property of the University of South Carolina contained within the above described area shall be limited to students, members of the faculty, staff and employees, all of whom must have identification cards or written authorization from the Administrative Officials of the University of South Carolina or the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, on their person.

The curfew hours established by the Executive Order and Proclamation of May 11, 1970, to wit, between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., are reaffirmed; and no person shall be authorized to be within the area described herein during such hours except: In the case of students who must remain within their dormitories during such hours, and, in the case of non-students who must remain within their places of residence, if such place of residence be within the above described area, during the hours of curfew.

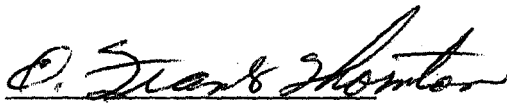

Except as enlarged and amended by the provisions herein, the prior Executive Order and Proclamation dated May 11, 1970, is in all other respects to continue in full force and effect.

PURSUANT TO THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, I do hereby proclaim that a state of emergency exists in the City of Fairfax and in an area lying within one (1) mile of the City limits of the City of Fairfax; and in order to minimize the dangers to life, limb and property, I do hereby authorize and direct:

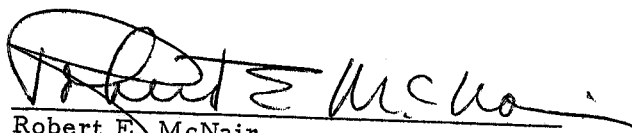

That any and all law enforcement officers of the State and its subdivisions, and the officials of the City of Fairfax and all other persons in authority do whatever may be deemed necessary to maintain peace and good order:

I do further order that until subsequently determined by me that the need for such restriction is no longer necessary, that a curfew be and the same is hereby proclaimed in the City of Fairfax and in the area lying within one (1) mile of the City limits of the City of Fairfax to commence at 9:00 p.m. this date, May 16, 1970, and to expire at 6:00 a.m. of each following day and to commence and terminate at those times on subsequent days until hereinafter ordered. During the hours between 9:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. those persons within the City of Fairfax and the area lying within one (1) mile thereof shall remain within their homes and all businesses shall close during hours of curfew.

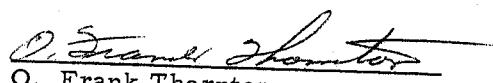

Those persons required to attend to business of an emergency or essential nature shall continue as under normal conditions, but shall obtain clearance from Chief J. P. Strom of South Carolina Law Enforcement Division or his designates. To avoid hardship and to insure that no persons will be unduly restricted, the said officials may in their discretion authorize such exceptions to the foregoing restrictions as they may feel advisable.

Chief J. P. Strom of South Carolina State Law Enforcement Division is hereby authorized to issue such directives as may be necessary to implement this order.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Carolina at Columbia, South Carolina, this 16th day of May, 1970.
