Nikki,

It was brought to my attention that you haven't joined as a member of The Heritage Foundation for 2017.

In this pivotal year, as conservatives prepare to enact sweeping policy changes to roll back eight years of Obama's failed liberal ideas, I hope you'll consider joining the team that is providing the research and intellectual firepower to fuel this resurgence.

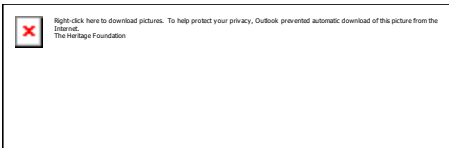

Your membership enables Heritage experts to develop solutions to repeal Obamacare, keep our country safe, and promote liberty and Constitutional government.

I'd love it if you could take just a minute to join as soon as possible. Here's a secure link where you can do it right now:

Thanks for all you're doing to get America back on track.
