CCL: Please call and tell your US Senator "NO" to the Jesuit's candidate for SCOTUS, Brett Kavanaugh.

US Capitol ph: (202) 224-3121, ask for each US Senator by name.

CCL Comments:

The Brett Kavanaugh nomination for US Supreme Court Justice and the upcoming confirmation hearings (beginning Tuesday, September 4) provide our Establishment elites with another opportunity of brainwashing the American people into continuing to accept the US Supreme Court as the "final arbiter" of the US Constitution. This is tyranny and this is false !!!

How many evangelical Christians in the United States understand the historical and current, ONGOING Counter-Reformation mission of the Jesuits ?

While Rome is, in a sense, playing 3-D chess, expanding her dominion over the United States, evangelicals seem to be naively playing tic-tac-toe, even (foolishly, un-Biblically) yoking up with followers of the false religion of Rome as co-belligerents in the culture wars (e.g., ecumenical "pro-life" activity such as the so-called 40 Days for Life "prayer campaign"), to the detriment of the Bible-believing church, and also actually, unintentionally, facilitating the PERPETUATION of child-murder by "abortion" in the United States (e.g., the US Roman Catholic Bishops / USCCB and their proxies, NRL, AUL, et al. OPPOSE States' Personhood legislation to actually END the child-killing).

Personhood Report :

Opposition of Pope - Appointed US Roman Catholic Bishops to Multiple States' Personhood Legislation: 2006 - 2012

Michigan (2006)

Georgia (2008)

Colorado (2008, 2009/2010, 2012)

Montana (2008, 2009)

North Dakota (2009)

Florida (2009)

Missouri (2010)

Mississippi (2011)

Child-murder-by-"abortion" in America could have been ENDED in 1973, and can still be today, by establishing justice for all pre-birth human beings, by recognizing the Creator God-given unalienable right to life of every human being as a "person", in law, at fertilization, and that without exception, because God's Word says, "Thou shalt not kill (murder)." Exodus 20:13, KJV.

If children in the womb are vested with legal personhood, then under the Constitution of each State, or the Constitution of the United States (depending upon whether state or federal Personhood Bill), they cannot be deprived of their lives without due process and equal protection of the law.

So why is not the Republican-majority US House of Representatives seeking to pass principled federal Personhood Bill HR 586 ( www.Congress.gov ) to END (not just perpetually, incrementally "regulate") child-murder-by-"abortion" in America?

[ CCL: Emphasis added ]

If you were hoping for a born-again Protestant to finally serve on the Supreme Court, keep up your wishful thinking (or sincere prayers). It's probably not going to happen any time soon. At 23.9% of the American population, Roman Catholics make up 66.6% of the Supreme Court (we are counting Neil Gorsuch in that number, although he now attends a fairly religionless Episcopal church). At 1.4% of the American population, Jews make up 33% of the Supreme Court. President Donald Trump's latest nominee for the highest court will not change those figures.

Brett Kavanaugh is a Roman Catholic and is a regular lector at the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Washington, D.C

(not to be confused with Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament of Our Lady of the Angels Monastery, which is in Birmingham, Alabama). That church claims to serve 9,497 men, women and children (as of 2012; more recent figures have not been made available).

Kavanaugh's Roman Catholic church home, Washington D.C.

He is also closely tied to the Jesuit order, lecturing and teaching at the Washington Jesuit Academy.

He also attended the Georgetown Preparatory Academy, the same Jesuit High School that was attended by Neil Gorsuch. In fact, Kavanaugh even mentioned the Jesuit component of his high school on Monday night in his acceptance speech, saying, "The motto of my Jesuit high school was, 'Men for others,'" he said. "I have tried to live that creed."

The Georgetown Preparatory Academy is the oldest Jesuit school in the United States, having begun in 1789.

A building on the campus of the high school, the William S. George Center, has a visual history of the growth of similar Jesuit schools in the United States, with all their various seals. The Georgetown Preparatory Academy is the only Jesuit boarding school in the United States.

The school was founded by the vision of John Carroll, the first bishop and archbishop of the United States.

Carroll joined the "Society of Jesus," (the Jesuits) in 1753, then joined the diaconate and eventually the priesthood.

After a brief stay in Europe, Carroll returned to the American colonies when Pope Clement XIV began to suppress the Jesuit influence because of their militancy and constant struggle to control the church in the New World

(the Jesuit order was restored to the Roman Catholic church in 1814). Carroll's work in the new United States grew quickly, establishing a Jesuit majority in the U.S.

Over the course of his public career, Brett Kavanaugh has repeatedly lauded the work of both John Carroll and the Jesuit order.

Brett Kavanaugh with President Donald J Trump

However, on top of the bad news that a Christian will not be filling the shoes of Justice Kennedy on the court if Trump's nominee is approved, it seems unlikely that Kavanaugh will overturn Roe v Wade, the 1973 decision by the Supreme Court that is largely seen as legalizing abortion (there is a serious Constitutional question as to whether or not it is the role of the judicial branch of government to make something legal or illegal).

While some conservatives are happy with Trump's selection of Kavanaugh because he appears to be a strict constructionist and originalist – desiring to interpret the Constitution as it was originally designed to be understood – others are signaling that Kavanaugh's one area of weakness is the issue of abortion, one of the most monumental overreaches of judicial power in U.S. history.

In May of 2006, Kavanaugh was asked by Chuck Schumer during his confirmation hearings for the D.C. Circuit Court if he would uphold Roe V Wade and he answered in the affirmative .

"If confirmed to the D.C. Circuit, I would follow Roe v. Wade faithfully and fully. That would be binding precedent of the court," Kavanaugh said, referring to the legal principle of stare decisis. "It's been decided by the Supreme Court."

You can watch the video here.

This incident is one of the very few times Kavanaugh has responded to direct questions about abortion, but it does not bode well for pro-life conservatives.

Last October, Kavanaugh was a part of an appellate decision in which the "right to an abortion" for an illegal immigrant was confirmed, but not the right to "immediate abortion on demand." In other words, it was Kavanaugh's opinion that the abortion could wait until the baby was a bit older in the womb and that it wasn't urgent. This is hardly a pro-life victory. A dissenting opinion on the appellate panel, from Judge Karen LeCraft Henderson, argued – unlike Kavanaugh – that the illegal alien had no "right" to an abortion because she wasn't a Citizen to begin with.

While pro-abortion activists are panicking over Kavanaugh's selection, from every possible indicator it seems that the Justice may limit certain access to abortion, but it is highly unlikely that he would vote to overturn Roe altogether. And for the unborn , that's no real victory . In the meantime, pro-life proponents hope that Kavanaugh has been intentionally silent on abortion during his career so as to be able to pass Senate confirmation hearings, should he ever be nominated for the Supreme Court. While possible, this scenario is probably unlikely.

CCL Comments:

"Jesuits": "Their chief aim was to stamp out the Reformation (see Counter Reformation)."

"Jesuits", Dictionary of Theological Terms, by Alan Cairns, 2002, p. 242

"Counter Reformation": "The response of the Roman Catholic church to the Protestant Reformation in the 16th century. In this response, Rome made much use of the Inquisition and in the decrees of the Council of Trent, produced a theological statement anathematizing the leading doctrines of the Reformation.

... The work of the Counter Reformation was, AND IS, carried on mostly by the order (Ignatius) Loyola founded, the so-called Society of Jesus, the Jesuits." (emphasis added)

"Counter Reformation", Dictionary of Theological Terms, by Alan Cairns, 2002, pp. 111, 112

Note: Alan Cairns was a former pastor at Faith Free Presbyterian Church, 1207 Haywood Rd., Greenville, SC

Christian, the Jesuit-led Counter Reformation is ONGOING, right here in the United States, and is ultimately a threat to our lives and liberties.

Please call and tell your US Senator "NO" to the Jesuit's candidate for SCOTUS, Brett Kavanaugh.

[Video - Collins says Kavanaugh views Roe v. Wade as 'settled law']

Excerpts (emphasis, comments added):

A Republican [CCL: sic - RINO] senator whose vote could ensure the confirmation of Supreme Court nominee

Brett M. Kavanaugh offered an upbeat assessment of their meeting Tuesday, highlighting the judge's statement that the Roe v. Wade decision legalizing [ CCL: sic ] abortion is "settled law." [ CCL: sic ]

Sen. Susan Collins (Maine), a centrist [CCL: sic - RINO] who supports abortion rights [CCL: sic - child-murder-by-"abortion"] , appeared to be leaning toward backing President Trump's nominee after a one-on-one session that lasted more than two hours.

Collins said she would announce her decision after confirmation hearings next month.

Collins said Kavanaugh told her that he agreed with [CCL: ObamaCare individual mandate supporter]

Chief Justice John G. Roberts Jr., who said during his 2005 confirmation hearing that Roe was "settled as a precedent of the court." The landmark 1973 Supreme Court decision established a woman's right [ CCL: sic ] to terminate her pregnancy [ CCL: sic - to murder her child - NEVER ! ] .

CCL Comments : What is "settled law" is the written text of the US Constitution ! Federal judges swear an Oath to support and defend the US Constitution (written text),
NOT court opinion precedent / "stare decisis".

It appears Brett Kavanaugh is another John-Roberts-styled-Trojan-Horse.

The US Supreme Court has done to the US Constitution what the false Church of Rome has done to the Bible: usurped, violated, and overridden the written text with the flawed, perverse and wicked Opinions of men (and women in the case of SCOTUS).

Please call your two US Senators (202-224-3121, US Capitol switchboard, ask for Senator by name) and tell them to vote "NO" to John-Roberts-type Trojan Horse Brett Kavanaugh.

Kavanaugh's US Senate Judiciary Committee hearings are to begin Tuesday, September 4.

The US Supreme Court has done to the US Constitution what the Roman Catholic Church Hierarchy has for centuries done to God's Word, the Holy Bible: usurped, perverted, ignored, corrupted and rejected the authority of the written text for its own pronouncements:

We are being ruled by Romish, fascist, Jesuitical tyranny (e.g., Roe, Obergefell). An insightful author wrote in The Christian Statesman over 12 years ago, to the effect pointing out the US Supreme Court has done to the US Constitution what the Roman Catholic Church has done to the Bible.

The Christian Statesman - "For the Crown Rights of Jesus Christ"
" Court Tradition, or the Constitution Alone? "

November-December 2005 Vol. 148., No. 6, pp. 15-19.

<http://christianlifeandliberty.net/2017-02-06-The-Christian-Statesman-Nov-Dec-2005-Court-Tradition-or-the-Constitution-Alone.pdf>

Excerpt [p. 15]:

'... the [ US ] Supreme Court became to the [ US ] Constitution what the Roman Catholic Church had become to the Bible.

Constitutionally speaking, there are few "Protestants" today. Few believe in the doctrine of the [ US ] Constitution alone.

Few even know it exists.'
