Lily,

I actually just checked online, and they do not offer West Wing tours at all on Mondays. Could they do Tuesday evening?

For the meeting at 4 PM on the 15th with Director Mulvaney, I will need everyone who will be in the meeting to fill out the form below. Our office is in the Eisenhower Executive Office Building in suite 252 (second floor). They may use the guest entrance on 17th Street and State Place – please be sure they bring an ID!

Hi Kailey,

Danny Varat asked that I let you know that The Lieutenant Governor would like to take the 9 PM West Wing tour with his family as recommended. There will be a total of 6 people to take the tour. Also, he is available to meet Director Mulvaney at his office at 4 PM. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information from us.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Lily

Hi Danny,

Unfortunately, visitors can not tour the West Wing until 9 PM at night (at the earliest). If you are still interested to pursuing that, I will see which members of our staff can stay after hours to escort LG Bryant and his family.

I would be happy to arrange a meeting between LG Bryant and Director Mulvaney in his office in the Eisenhower building. Could they do a 4 PM meeting?

Best,
Kailey

Kailey, thanks for your help on this. Director Mulvaney and LG Bryant have been texting, and they discussed that it might be possible for him to come by with Mrs. Bryant and two of their children (17 and 22) sometime on Monday afternoon or early evening (May 15th) for a look around the West Wing and a short visit. I and another staff member also will be with them, but if six is too much of an ask, then he and I can skip it.

I'm copying Lily Cogdill in our office, and she can work with you going forward to arrange the details. I appreciate it,

Danny
