Fuel and driver wages alone make up more than half of most companies' fleet operations budget. Nearly every organization has room for improvement when it comes to controlling these costs. Now is the time to learn how to get a handle on your vehicle and labor expenses for 2016 and beyond.

Register now for January's Networkfleet webinar and discover how an investment in GPS-based fleet management technology can start paying for itself almost immediately.

Presenter Annette Correll of Networkfleet is a fleet telematics expert with experience as a field service business owner. From her unique point-of-view, Annette will reveal why today's cost-conscious fleet managers are relying on GPS-based fleet management technology to help:

- Cut fuel usage
- Control vehicle repair costs
- Curb labor costs
- Lower insurance premiums
- Reduce tire replacement and other vehicle wear and tear

Join our 30-minute webinar, Take Control of Your 2016 Operations Budget with Fleet Management Technology, on Thurs, Jan 21, 2016, at 11am Pacific / 2pm Eastern to learn how you can lower operational expenses in the New Year.
