Dear Agent Duffy,

On behalf of the people of South Carolina, Michael and I want to thank you for your thirty years of dedicated service to the federal government and the people of our great state. You have made a tremendous impact at the Internal Revenue Service over the course of your career. Playing a critical role in historic cases and setting a high standard for your colleagues, your contributions will certainly leave a lasting impression on the agency.

We wish you all the best in your future endeavors. God bless.

My very best,
