(C) The General Assembly by law may waive the requirements of making up missed days or, by law, may authorize the school board of trustees to forgive up to three days missed because of snow, extreme weather conditions, or other disruptions requiring schools to close. A waiver granted by the local board of trustees of the requirement for making up missed days also must be authorized through a majority vote of the local school board.

Doesn't this have to be legislatively achieved?

Governor Haley,

I support your decision to place South Carolina under a state of emergency. My district, Berkeley county, canceled school due to the dangerous conditions. However, there is a chance that we will now have to make up our missed school day on our Teacher Work Day. If there is any way that you could excuse this "storm day" so that we don't have to make it up, I know that all of the teachers in South Carolina would thank you! We have such an important job to do and we need that work day to get prepared for our most important customers, our students! Thank you for your time and consideration on this matter! Sincerely, Amanda
