Description/Significant Features:

The single-story masonry commercial building stands multiple piles deep and is clad in brick and topped by a front gabled roof with metal sheathing. A two-story square concrete block addition is attached to the building's northwest corner. A plate-glass door and a band of commercial plate-glass windows punctuate the building's facade and are covered by a modern flat roof porch supported by Y-shaped metal posts. Multiple window openings of various sizes are found along the building's eastern and western elevations.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

rear addition of two-story concrete block building replacement of original door and windows on facade
