Description/Significant Features:

Single story, side-gabled structure with a three-bay front elevation; a central entry door, with a fluted pilaster surround and four-pane sidelights, is flanked by a single two-over-one, double-hung, wooden sash window on either side. A full-width, shed-roofed porch, which is supported by slender tapered square columns on brick piers and has visible raftertails, spans the front elevation (likely postdates the original house construction). Northern elevation has three evenly spaced two-over-two, double-hung, wooden sash windows and an exterior brick chimney, with stone base; triangular brackets, (likely postdate the original house construction). Southern elevation has same configuration.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

Porch alterations - early 20th century

Window replacement - early to mid-20th century
