It has come to my attention that your agency may not have been aware of this event which IS a tragedy.

Attached is the flyer for Saturday's game. Sorry it's SOOOO late, but if you could distribute via email to your colleagues that would be great. Please alert them of the deadline to RSVP is/was 7/31TODAY..... see email address on flyer and hopefully everyone can/will act fast! I would say tell them if they don't get to see this today, to send an RSVP by 10/11 AM tomorrow 8/1 and if accepted, they should get a generic response confirming the tickets. I am also including the number to the BLOWFISH office (KELLY 254-3474) incase someone responds at the flyer email and does not get a response. This will allow them to call to verify acceptance of their request before going to the will call area at the gate on SATURDAY. I truly hope people are able to take advantage even though this is LATE. Thanks for helping to make the event stronger.
