ON THE MOVE IN THE UPSTATE

Spartanburg's Historic Duncan Park Stadium added to the National Register of Historic Places

For the majority of its history, the stadium was home to minor league teams, textile teams, and American Legion teams. Today, Duncan Park Stadium has officially become a historic landmark through the National Park Service's National Register of Historic Places. It is the result of the collaborative efforts of the City of Spartanburg, McMillan Pazdan Smith and Spartanburg School District 7. Read More
