We're still celebrating our online Atalaya Arts & Crafts Festival! Meet artist Jeff Johnson & his awesome spoons! Jeff is a retired Army Officer who became a part-time woodworker and full-time software engineer for nearly 25 years. After retiring a second time, Jeff moved to Beaufort, SC and decided to meet more people, enjoy his woodworking hobby and life. He creates and hand carves kitchen utensils and unique home items from off-cut, discarded and salvaged wood. Shop his wares, here: <https://southcarolinaparks.com/atalaya-festival/jeff-Johnson>
Great gifts!

Sandra Nabors The problem is when I go to the Etsy store there are no items listed so I feel a lot of the craftsmen are losing sales
