Are We There Yet? An Update on Gobeille v. Liberty Mutual

In a May NASHP Health Policy Blog post, as the Supreme Court was considering hearing Vermont's ERISA preemption case, Gobeille v. Liberty Mutual, we noted that Vermont and other states are waiting to see whether the case will result in new limits on states' ability to collect all-payer claims database (APCD) data from self-insured employer-sponsored health plans.

Two weeks ago, the U.S. Solicitor General weighed in on the case, read our update...
