Thanks Christian. I certainly understand re DC.

I will be in New York on 17th and 18th, so I've reached out to Jeff to see if I can't brief him on work done so far at another time.

Thanks-

Joe

Thanks, but with the session calendar being so unpredictable, I can't really commit to anything out of town in June. There's a fair chance that we may be working on budget vetoes, etc. that week.

Oh...and I just heard from Jeff Liebman...he'll come to town the night of June 17th and will be here the day of June 18th.

Christian,

We are co-hosting with ReadyNation an early childhood social impact finance presentation and panel discussion in DC on June 25th in the morning. Would you be interested/available in flying up to participate in the panel? We think your perspective will be invaluable. We are having this at 101 Constitution Avenue (the Nelson Mullins building). We also have our colleagues who are working on this in Utah participating. I can share more details if you are interested or able to participate.

Thank you--
Joe
