Statement from ExcelinEd Chairman Jeb Bush on Betsy DeVos as Education Secretary

Tallahassee, Fla - Today, Governor Jeb Bush, Chairman of the Foundation for Excellence in Education released the following statement.

“Betsy DeVos is an outstanding pick for Secretary of Education.

“She has a long and distinguished history championing the right of all parents to choose schools that best ensure their children’s success. Her allegiance is to families, particularly those struggling at the bottom of the economic ladder, not to an outdated public education model that has failed them from one generation to the next.

“I cannot think of a more effective and passionate change agent to press for a new education vision, one in which students, rather than adults and bureaucracies, become the priority in our nation’s classrooms.

“I congratulate Betsy and look forward to her bold leadership at the U.S. Department of Education.”
