Subject: New Resource: Care to Plan

---

Dear ADSSP and ADI-SSS Grantees and Collaborative Partners,

We are pleased to share with you a new resource "Care to Plan" developed by the School of Nursing and Center on Aging at the University of Minnesota and the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality. This is a free, publicly available website that allows caregivers find needed support to care for a person with dementia. You can access "Care to Plan" directly via <http://www.mcicc-connect.org/index.php>.

Thank you,

National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center
