

From:

To:

Date: 7/12/2016 1:19:05 PM

Subject:

---

"Since taking office Governor Haley has promised to give the taxpayers a government that works for them not the other way around. This is simply another example of good government at work—ensuring that our agencies know what resources they have and that those resources are being used efficiently."

On background:

No, there is no suspicion of wrongdoing or over use.