Subject: Question about Rep. Clyburn earmarks

Hi Chaney,

I'm working on a story for Urban News Service about Rep. Clyburn's earmarking money to benefit those close to him, particularly with respect to the most recent Transportation Commission to repurpose money for "low-priority" projects. I was wondering if I could get a comment from your office by end of day about this and how South Carolina taxpayers could have been better served by the money sent from Congress? The congressman has been criticized for a history of corruption, and this seems to be yet another example of that.

Thanks so much!
