Mrs. Haley,

I'm a wife of 6 years and mother of a 4 year old. I have been following the debate that has recently come up about the Rebal Flag. The debate to take it down or not to take it down. I think as a SC resident, born and raised, is a disgrace. That is apart of everyone in the Souths heritage. If you are black, white, homosexual, heterosexual, Baptists, Methodist, ect it is a part of all of us. I feel with this recent tragic event in Charleston is horrible. 9 people lost their lives for a little boy who wanted to start a race war. The world has seen SC come together as a family, all races and religions. I am glad this young troubled boy did not get the reaction he was looking for.....but got the exact opposite! Please tell me why his actions have stirred this discussion again. There are more things to worry about and need far more attention than a flag that had no part in one person's decision. Whether the flag is up or down that will not stop the racism with EVERYONE!!! Not just white and black.

Let's talk about children with medical issues. Me and my husband struggle daily with money due to our sons medical condition. [REDACTED] Look it up on the internet and you can see how much time in preparing food for him is. I was told we make to much for Medicaid assistance and SNAP. With the price of his grocery bill we barely have enough to cover a roof over our heads some months. Their are other kids twice as worse has him. Yet there is no help for us. We owe around $7,000 in medical expenses alone and that will continue to climb until they find a cure, if they ever do. How bout a debate over helping families with chronic sick children. Some kids are Gtube feed because they can not any eat solid food at all. I don't see this being debated over. I don't see anyone trying to find a way to help with medical expenses, making it mandatory for these kids with chronic health issues to have extra healthcare. Instead we have ones that use the system and drive cars worth more than mine. They always have the best clothes and hair styles. Yet buy their groceries with SNAP. Of course this program is great for the ones who really need it. The same with Medicaid. I work in healthcare and have for 10 years. I have heard patients complain over a $3.30 copay for Medicaid and I can barely afford my premium, copay, deductibles, prescriptions, Ect. How is that even right. Please explain this to me.

This ridiculous discussion over the Rebal Flag should not be up for a debate. This will not change racism in this state or the U.S. at that. There are mores issues in SC that should a topic not taking down my heritage.

Sincerely,
Ashley

Governor Haley.

I'm not in the habit of writing governors or political letters: however, after 150 years it is finally obvious to decent people everywhere that the confederate flag (not deserving of capitalization) must be buried once and for all. Although defenders of it view it as a symbol of Southern life - a good thing - too many others use it as a symbol of hatred acceptable to state government. Just as Presudent Reagan said, "Mr. Gorbachev, tear down that wall!". Governor Haley, I implore you to tear down and bury that flag in all of its iterations. It has become a symbol of evil. You will be sending a message to all South Carolinians, all Americans and all African-Americans. The time has come, governor.

Thank you.

In the wake of the murders in Charleston, the Confederate flag has got to go. Removing this highly visible symbol of divisiveness is the only honorable course. Please bring do whatever you can to remove the flag from the statehouse grounds.

I had trouble choosing from your list of topics, as you do not even list civil rights as a valid topic for discussion. Nor have I heard you mention racism, which was clearly the motive for these killings; instead you said "we'll never understand what motivates people" to kill. Take your head out of the sand and do the right thing.

What does the confederate flag have to do with anything racist? It is part of American history. People blow things out of portion. Leave it alone and stop trying to take away history. People are er of what we take away. Some people must have slept during history lessons in school!

The confederate flag is apart of our history. Just when are we going to draw the line people. You cannot go back and change history. Just like you cannot force ones beliefs and opinions on another simply because you feel strongly to you.

I'm an Indian American/South Asian and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Nikki Haley, you are so wrong about all this about the Conf. Flag all you are doing is giving into to people that do not like it and it's meaning all they see is hate - I see heritage - there will be something else that will come up and people will want their way again when will it stop - people will be offended by a lot of things in life just get over it and move on people - I guess the American flag will be next because it offends someone - What will you do then ? Are there more important things we need to be worried about in our state like the elderly not having enough money to buy medicine they need - unwed teenager getting pregnant and the state has to keep them up - black on black crimes - people killing each other - crimes against children and elderly people - our military and their families - and the list can go on and on - why not stop people from buying guns - PEOPLE KILL PEOPLE - guns do not shot till the trigger is pulled - Put the blame where it belongs - Not on the Flag -

As a proud American, I am disgusted by the lack of moral leadership in South Carolina. The Confederate flag flies proudly over your capitol, pandering to people who want to return to 1861. It legitimizes their racist views, yet politicians wring their hands and say there's nothing they can do. Now is the time to stand up for decency and remove the flag from government property.

Dear Governor Haley,

I would like to ask you to honor your constituents and your fellow Americans and take down the confederate flag from your government buildings and any building in your state. As a native North Carolinian and proud southerner, I understand the value of tradition. I also understand the value of respect and of times changing. That flag stands for hate and it has no place there if you, your state and our country are ever to move forward. This is the right thing to do.

Thank you.

Ms. Haley,

I am very disappointed by your recent comments regarding the Confederate Flag. Your comments show very shallow reasoning and inconsistent logic in that if you follow your reasoning to it's ultimate conclusion you will also call for the removal of the United States flag from the capital grounds as well. Hate groups consistently use the U.S. flag. If you follow your logic to it's ultimate conclusion you will also call for the banning of guns in South Carolina as hate groups regularly carry guns and a gun was seen being held by the murderer of those in the church. Are you consistent? I don't think you will be. You have become a political opportunist and I feel sorry for your family that they must see you like this. I can only hope and pray you will regain your senses. Hope your current political foray fails.

with kind regards.

Dear Governor Haley.

Please do not take down the Confederate flag. It is a part of Southern Heritage. Please do not bow down to pressure. My Great Grandfather fought in the 42nd Virginia Infantry and I fly the confederate flag at my home in WV.

Can't you take some executive action to remove that flag? If you can't, call a special session. Do something to show the USA that SC wants to be part of it and is not a state by force. You got all tough about Bike week in Myrtle Beach. Get tough now about symbols of hate. The flag may seem like heritage for some, but it symbolizes hate to many others. Its prominent presence legitimizes the actions of the haters.

Until the recent events in Charleston, I supported the Confederate flag monument. If this monument causes more pain for our African-American population, it should be moved. I believe the Confederate flag should be moved, perhaps to the State Museum as a piece of history. Thank you for your time and all that you do.

Because this will be the first step, people say that the American flag offends and is a symbol of oppression that it is a flag of hate, so if they get the confederate flag what do you think will be next.

I, unlike our leaders, know our history and I think it is funny that they are giving in to peer pressure from other elected officials and states that have no idea what the flag stands for, it does not have anything to do with racism or hate. It would be a good idea for people to do a little research before they jump to conclusions and if push comes to shove, at least let the people of SC have a say so and put it to a vote!

Dear Governor. I work for a [REDACTED] bank in Manhattan. I am immediately instructing all staff members under my control to boycott all future business dealings, to the legal extent possible, with the state of South Carolina until the Confederate flag is permanently removed from the State Capitol grounds.

You and the flag's supporters should be ashamed to have a clear symbol of hate so prominently displayed for the world to see. As I recall the "South" lost the war.

I believe Governor Haley is right that it is too soon to begin a debate over removing the confederate flag from the state house grounds. This is the time to show our love and support for the families of the victims and the Charleston community. However, we should not wait too long to deal with the flag issue. It is not just a flag. It is a symbol of slavery, bigotry and hatred. What message do we want to give the impressionable young people of South Carolina? Do we want adults who already have these opinions to believe our leaders support them? Do we want to validate such opinions and ideas by leaving this symbol at our capitol? Or do we want to show that it is wrong at every level to officially support bigotry? I am a life long South Carolinian who has always been opposed to flying the confederate flag as if it represents us. Please work to have it removed.

My family from both sides have been in South Carolina for generations and I love and live in this state. This heartbreaking event in Charleston must result in taking the confederate flag, which is a symbol of hate, off of the statehouse grounds. I am proud that our citizens have come together when similar circumstances in other places erupted in violence. Please support this value of love for each other we have in our great state and make a strong statement by removing the flag.

<SUBJECT>Get rid of the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

Hello. I am a PA resident who was going to come to Charleston for vacation this summer and spring break with my family. I will not set foot in your state now. I always thought that SC is a bit backwards for still flying the Confederate flag and the south is the south. But after the racially motivated and terrorist shooting in Charleston, I say it is time to do what you guys should have done decades ago-remove the Confederate flag from the State House. Until then, I will spend my dollars elsewhere.

Sincerely,

Michele [REDACTED]

As a state leader. TAKE DOWN THE FLAG.

It's a historic relic of racism that currently promotes hate.

The reality that the flag flies over the capitol is beyond any evidence of ethics. respect. dignity for ALL human beings. Favoring a white 'minority' is WRONG.

Never has a flag killed anyone. This was a guy filled with hate, looking to start a race war. He failed, but the politicians in our State appear to be picking up where he left off. It's so sad to watch...

Message:

Dear Governor Haley: I have changed my mind about the Confederate flag flying over the State Capitol building. I have turned 180 degrees in the last few days.

I had always supported the flag flying over the Capitol as a matter of history and tradition. I felt that taking it down would be to hide our state history. I have completely changed my mind.

For over 5,000 years the swastika was a symbol of peace and prosperity. It was co-opted by the Nazis and we now - all of us - see it as a symbol of the worst hate man has ever perpetrated on the human race. Most of us would never use the swastika in a celebratory way. So too, the Confederate flag has come to represent something other than what it was originally intended to mean. It now is a symbol of division and extreme pain to enough people in our state that I am asking you to do what you can to remove it from the Capitol building. It needs to be in a museum, not flying over all the people of South Carolina. Thank you to you and your staff for taking the time to read this. Also...thank you so much for being my Governor!

For the record: I am NOT a racist: I AM a member of the DAC. BUT, it IS time to take down the Confederate flag. We have moved on from that period of our history, it is hurtful and offensive to some and it causes others to be full of hate. Removal will send the right message especially if it is done in honor of Mr. Pinckney and those at Emanuel AME Church who set the example of Peacemakers.

WHAT AN AWESOME STATEMENT WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE and the time could not be more perfect!

Dear Ms. Haley,

I was a South Carolina resident for many years. The beautiful people of Charleston are in my sincerest prayers during this very difficult time.

I lived in Columbia during the years 1976 to 1986 where I attended USC College of Engineering and received BS, MS and PhD degrees in chemical engineering there. I also lived in Aiken for 6 years where I was a research engineer at the [REDACTED] I now live in New Mexico and work at [REDACTED]

After the tragic events I was touched by the many interviews with the citizens of Charleston. They are a people with strong, humble and beautiful character. I am inspired by how they are guided by their faith, and their faith is the source of their strength.

The purpose of this message is to express my great disappointment in regards to the Confederate Flag and its display at the State House. I have heard the words that "this is part of our heritage". Words that best represent my thoughts when I hear this are, "grow up", "stop dwelling on the past" and "stop with the narcissism".

In 1976 I came to USC as an undergraduate student after graduating high school in New Jersey. I was surprised by many of the in-state students who joked about my being a "Yankee", and the subject of the Civil War came up so often. There seemed to be this consciousness and dwelling on North vs. South and the Civil War. I just wanted to pursue my education, and I never understood why this would even come up. I would ask myself, "why this silly dwelling on the past?". This was nearly 40 years ago, but the recent views in your state about the Confederate Flag tell me that some attitudes have not changed.

Take down the stupid flag. Start building your future.

Sincerely,

Art [REDACTED]

My husband and I are frequent visitors to the beautiful city of Charleston.
Until the confederate flag is removed from display and government affairs. also any other related symbols of the civil war. we will not be visiting or spending our money in South Carolina.

While we realize that this may have historic value to some. we do not recognize the need for such a blatant. disrespectful display. That it should still be flying at full mast. unacceptable. It belongs in a museum and should not be acknowledged as a state symbol.

The flag has nothing to do with hatred. It represents history of a war fought by people who stood up for how they felt. It's part of history and needs to remain where it is to represent lives that were lost. People who try to say it represents hatred only shows that's what's in their heart. I just wish everyone could remember that we learn from past mistakes. Today's times are different, just as 100 years from now they will talk about the mistakes we made.

I also hope that I can send you another thank you note after you lead an effort to place that flag in a different location. I served this United States for 20 years in the military under one flag. I can not remember ever seeing the Confederate flag flying over an Army Post. I wonder why??

Dear Governor Haley,

While your a portion of your constituents in South Carolina support flying the confederate flag above the state's Capitol, a large portion of the population of your home state, the United States, and others outside in the world, find its presence a symbol of oppression and horror.

You have a remarkable opportunity to make a gesture, that while symbolic, could help heal the now gaping wound in our wonderful country.

I support you in your struggle with this decision.

Respectfully,

Rebecca [REDACTED]

Message:

In light of the recent events in Charleston and the wonderful spirit of unity that has resulted, I would like to suggest that the Confederate flag flying over our Capitol be replaced with a new flag designed to represent pride in the South, but focused on unity and faith and the strength of the Southern spirit. As an example, perhaps a circle of stars surrounding an appropriate symbol of faith. This may be the perfect opportunity to provide the South with an alternate symbol of our spirit and pride - one that all Southerners can support.

You can tear up on camera all you want but if you were a real hero, you'd personally go outside and take down that Confederate Flag. Take it down. Let them challenge you, but have some guts and do the right thing. It's not a symbol of The South I know and it has no present day value. You'd be a hero and you'd know that in your heart.

I am not ashamed of the "Confederate" flag. It is NOT a symbol of racial hatred but rather, it is a reminder of standing strong, not following the easy route.

Dear Governor Haley.

You have a loophole with which to remove all the confederate flags from state buildings in South Carolina. You may remove them for maintenance. Please use your executive power as Governor to take down the confederate flag. Do this and win the appreciation of millions of people around the country, and around the world. Do this because it is the right thing to do.

Maintenance is required to restore justice.

The confederate flag is a symbol of white supremacy and oppression, equivalent to the swastika used by the Nazi party. The confederate flag must come down now, as a symbol that you are working to restore justice in South Carolina. It is such a small step in the work that must be done. The time is now.

Please remove all of the confederate flags from state buildings.

Thank-you.

Deborah [REDACTED]

I am a recently retired lawyer, and a Southerner, and a 60-something White Guy. Until 2004, I was a lifelong Republican, having worked for candidates in Texas and for Republican Senators and for a Reagan appointee in Washington. I am now an independent who votes for candidates of both parties.

I was impressed with your immediate reaction to the horrible events in Charleston and I assume that your words and emotions were completely heartfelt and sincere. While I have not followed your career closely, I have been aware of your quick rise in the state and your record of accomplishment.

Speaking personally, the trip to Charleston that my wife and I have planned for about a year is now on hold. We will not be present in SC nor spend any money there as long as the Confederate flag flies over your Capitol; we'll just go to Savannah instead. It is past time to realize the offense and harm that this symbol causes, and to do the right thing. I urge you to get ahead of this issue and take the lead, before momentum for change engulfs you and your state.

You don't have to agree with "the other side" to know that the right thing to do is to respect the views of African Americans in your state (and throughout the country) and stop offending them. They are citizens too.

If the SC government doesn't get out ahead of this, there will be a boycott, and the stakes will get much higher, quickly, and your state will be embarrassed much further. Please be a leader, not another politician who only follows.

Respectfully.

John [REDACTED]

I am a proud southern man.in my family cemetery in bucks creek are my ancestors that fought for the revolution and the war between the states. 17 in all. I wish that back in the 50's our overnment had kept hate groups from adopting the stars and bars as their symbol. I hate even worse that our own senate put the confederate flag back over our Capitol to let black people know who was in charge.

that in an of itself is a hate crime. the stars and bars have been adopted as a white supremacy flag and they have no historic value anymore. burn the friggin flag . make a statement that it was a symbol once that many brave men fought to defend, but it has been disgraced by government and private sector to the point that it must go. south Carolina is better than this. we deserve better. stand up for something...just once.

Along with what I hope and believe to be the majority of Americans, I am disgusted and appalled that the Confederate Flag is still being flown on State property. Lest you attempt to claim it represents anything to be proud of, let me quote from the "Corner Stone Speech" by Alexander H. Stephens in Savannah, Georgia March 21, 1861, describing the foundations of the Confederacy:

"Our new government is founded upon exactly the opposite idea: its foundations are laid, its corner-stone rests, upon the great truth that the negro is not equal to the white man; that slavery subordination to the superior race is his natural and normal condition. This, our new government, is the first, in the history of the world, based upon this great physical, philosophical, and moral truth." It is disgusting. Take it down.

Dear Governor Haley:

Before you take down or move the Confederate flag at your capitol, please consider the facts in the Charleston shootings.

In reality, it is the liberal media who is directly and squarely to blame for Dylann Roof's unspeakable act. Roof had stated online that it was the Trayvon Martin case that sent him over the edge. Despite the video evidence released almost instantly after Martin's death that he was a thug who had just strong-armed a merchant and robbed his store, the media purposely set out to paint him as a victim. They continuously used pictures of a Martin years younger to portray him as an 'innocent young boy', while intentionally blocking more recent photos of him as a bird-flipping 200 pound gangster.

The result was multiple demonstrations, riots, and incessant anger from all sides. The media is unquestionably responsible for inciting Dylann Roof, not the Confederate flag.

Dear Govenor Haley, I respectfully request that you remove the Confederate flag from the South Carolina Capitol. Now is the time! Given the tragic killings in Charleston this past week, the time is right. This may not be a one-person decision, but why not let this act be one way that we begin to heal a heartbroken state. I urge you to take a leadership role in getting this done. The time is right.

I appreciate your attention to this.

Thank you.

Gov. Haley: you now have a unique opportunity to show that you are more than a common politician!
I see you have children. so, as a mother yourself, you have to feel for those affected families of the recent Charleston church shooting.

This flag has never symbolized anything good!

It represents a bad phase of our Country's history and, now, it represents bigotry and hate.

You could take a big step for both your State and your Country by demanding it's removal from the Capitoll and anywhere else it is used in association with South Carolina.

You know, in your heart, that this is the right call!

So, are you more than a common politician?

I hope so!

 <SUBJECT>When confederate flag comes down. I will then visit and spend money</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

A couple of years ago, my wife, son and I traveled from Seattle to Savannah and spent a wonderful week there. While there, we took a day trip to Charleston and absolutely loved it. We were thinking of going to Charleston for a weeks vacation. However, I have always abhorred the confederate flag in the state capitol and believe it should come down. Until it does, my family and I are doing our own personal boycott to not spend any money in South Carolina. It's a shame - we really do love South Carolina - especially the wonderful people we met.

Dear Governor Haley,

As a native citizen of South Carolina, and great-grandson of a confederate officer who fought for this state, I humbly ask that you and members of our legislature consider permanently removing the Confederate flag from our Statehouse grounds.

Speaking for myself and my family, our hearts are broken due to the events of last Wednesday. We support any efforts to honor the nine martyrs of Charleston; and to unify all the citizens of the Palmetto state.

Respectfully,

Scott [REDACTED]

Hello! After attending the Take the Flag Down rally on Saturday the 20th, I would love to encourage you to bring everyone back in from vacation to do a special vote and to actually remove the confederate flag from our capitol building.

While I know this will not end racism, our entire country has her eyes on us at this moment. Our state has responded so graciously to the horrendous Charleston murders, but I firmly believe by you, our governor, taking immediate action it could be a true picture of how great a state we are.

Thank you so much.

The Confederate Flag was first flown over your capital in 1962 in response to the civil rights movement. The original intent alone is enough to have it removed. Over the years it's gone from being a blatant defense of white supremacy to a delusional representation of history and southern pride.

Dear Governor Haley,

My family is from South Carolina. Most of them voted and support you as I would if I lived in your state. After the terrorist murders in Charleston. Now is the perfect time to remove the Confederate flag from the capital grounds. Certainly there would be political risk by ordering it done. But it is the right thing to do. I doubt anyone would step up and say you are wrong. Do not make a big deal out of it. Just have someone take it down one night and do not put it back up. When asked why, just say its the right thing to do. If someone wants it back up let them go through the process of overturning your decision. Lead us through this greif

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed Wednesday night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff. TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism and hatred at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

TAKE IT DOWN! NOW. TODAY.

DO NOT REMOVE THAT FLAG UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES!! Bush and Romney are spineless RINOS. They will say or do anything they think will get a vote. It is time to take a stand on this issue and our right to carry guns. The thing we need the most protection from is the corrupt federal government led by a Communist administration and a Congress full of Aholes like pelosi and reid.

Dear Gov Haley:

First of all, I want to commend you on the excellent job you have done in handling this most recent violation against society - the Charleston Church Massacre.

Secondly, I want to express my opinion regarding the confederate flag. I don't think it should be flying at the memorial because it DOES symbolize hate and division. I know first hand the hate and division is not restricted to color but also geographic origin. I am white but from the North and I have experienced a lot of hatred, name calling and the refusal of small businesses to do business with me when they hear my "Northern" accent. Even though I am not an Obama fan, I do agree that the flag belongs in a museum. The Civil War is over!! It's time to move on! Let's actually walk the walk of inclusiveness and unity . . . Take Down That Flag!

Respectfully,

Cathy [REDACTED]

I grew up in Clemson in the 60's and heard so many of my peers say terrible racists comments. They even hated Coach Marevich . father of the great basketball player Pete. a foreigner. They would have called Gov Haley the same thing. Their symbol is the flag of the confederacy which must come down if SC is to join the 21st century. Stand for something beside what the good ole boys want. They are fearful and angry because they know the world had changed. Gov. Haley is a symbol of that change. They want to control the way they always have. IT is time to move on.

thank you

I see you upset over the deaths of nine innocent African Americans in your state. His racist act of hatred is exemplified by the confederate flag in front of your capital building. He lives in a state where racism and hatred are acceptable. How can you have a judge hearing this case that has used the word "nigger" in past cases? I hope as the leader of South Carolina you will have the courage to speak out against racism and the easy accessibility to guns. Do the right thing.

The confederates were named American Veterans after the civil war. To take the flag down disgraces their sacrifice and memory. It has nothing to do with racism as I believe the time for name call. We need to remember our history not desecrate it.

I'm an Indian American and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities.

Driving through your state as a 10 year old child with my immigrant parents in the early 90's. I experienced racial discrimination and fear at a store that prominently sold confederate flags. Since then, the confederate flag has always been a symbol of the worst parts of this country to me. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Will you or will you not honor slain victims with half mast flag protocol. That would include the USA Flag or better still the USA and Confederate Flag concurrently. This would be a brave move toward healing.....Let me know your plan....

Gov. Haley,

I kindly plead with you to make a public statement against the Confederate flag over the capital, and take any actions in your power to remove it.

I've visited Indian-American in-laws in Greenville twice, and on both visits I felt extremely uncomfortable because of the hatred / animosity of people we encountered in the beautiful downtown area. On our 1st visit, we had a door slammed on us, because the shop was in the process of closing. We didn't get a "sorry, we're closed," we had the door ripped from our hands. On the 2nd visit, several people in a coffee shop wouldn't stop staring at us, but it wasn't a stare of curiosity at seeing a large group of Indians (we weren't the only large group at the shop). Their eyes were smouldering, and it felt like they wished their gaze would make everyone disappear or suffer in some way. Being white, I've never experienced this--and to have someone stare with such open animosity for no reason was quite startling--and out of the ordinary. It seemed to be intentionally hateful, because they didn't even break their gaze, when I tried to make eye contact repeatedly.

The point of these anecdotes is--South Carolina has a problem. Hate is in its DNA because of its staunch defense of its oppressive history, and all the mementos of it need to be stripped so that the state can become inclusive.

For God's sake. In following the news stories of the shooting, I was absolutely APPALLED to learn that the confederate flag is still flying high. Not only is that sickening after recent events, but that you fly it at all is nothing short of disgusting - why would anyone memorialize such a hideous and embarrassing part of American history?? Please. Take it down.

 Gov. Haley:

I was appalled when I heard your response on the news this AM to this tragic mass killings. To say that this is about 1 person is a tragic misunderstanding of conditions in this country that lead to massacres like this. Why don't you ask yourself why this doesn't happen in other countries to the extent it happens here. It's about the fact that guns are out of control in this country. There are crazy people in every country. However, they don't have such easy access to guns.

Secondly, the fact that you allow the confederate flag to fly over your state capital, in my mind, makes you a partner in supporting the racial hate that still exists in the US. I suppose if this flag is supposed to honor the men and woman who died fighting for the south, the the German government ought to fly the Nazi flag over their capital building. It is unbelievable to me that an educated person like yourself can be so ignorant.

If the flag can't be removed immediately, at least place a large black plastic trash bag over it and attach it with duck tape. Senator Pinckney will need that respect when he lies in State in the capital. Please don't make his family have to walk under the racist flag. Have respect at least in death.

Governor Haley I just wanted to commend you on your speech today to remove the confederate flag for the State House grounds. It would be in my opinion a way of honoring those lost last week. I keep hearing and seeing on the news that the flag issue has nothing to do with this terrible tragedy but I have to disagree. I think we as a state also need to address a policy to protect all citizens from hate crimes. It is my understanding that South Carolina does not have any laws in place at this time. In closing I just want to say I was so overwhelmed listening to the families actually forgiving the person that changed their lives forever. South Carolina is a great state with caring and loving people and the world has be seeing this in the days following this tragedy.

Regards, David [REDACTED]

Show some moral spine for a change. and send out the capital police to remove it. Who is going to stop you, in the wake of this violence? It is so incredibly disrespectful, and makes your words about this massacre ring SO hollow, that you allow it to continue to fly at all. Stop embarrassing our state. Just take it down.

Dear Ms. Haley,

I sent you a message yesterday imploring you to speak out about removing confederate flag from the capital building area. In that correspondence, I mentioned my visits to Charleston and the absolutely wonderful residents of South Carolina.

I decided to contact you again and commend you speaking out about this sensitive issue. I was very pleased to read in today's news that you chose to speak out in favor of the flag's removal. Thank you so much for solidifying my view South Carolina is a very special place.

I look forward to visiting South Carolina in the future. In fact, my wife and I are considering buying a summer home somewhere along the northern part of the coast. I wish you continued success in your governance of the good citizens of your state. Please take care and know you have a fan of your state in the Michiana (southwestern and northwestern area of Michigan and Indiana). I also might add your constituents are lucky to have you as their governor.

Respectfully,

Brian [REDACTED]

When my husband And I visited your state and the South Carolina State Capitol, we were sad and very troubled to see the Confederate flag flying. It was an embarrassment to us as U.S. Citizens to see a state of ours still flying the flag. We could only image the effect it had on people of color of any citizenship. So, THANK YOU for recommending to have this flag removed. If possible, please post or share this email to anyone you choose to show how this issue impacts people from states far away from you. Thank you!

Dear Governor Haley.

I am writing as a citizen of Colorado who will soon be visiting South Carolina for the first time. I am asking that you please remove the flag of the treasonous Confederate army-as soon as possible. You may not have heard from any CEOs about the flags removal, but I trust that you have heard from many citizens from around the country.

The time has come for the past to be relegated to museums and history books. You can secure your place in history by being the governor that finally takes down that symbol of oppression.

I'm sending a copy of this letter to Colorado's governor, John Hickenlooper. He may be able to talk to you about one of Colorado's great governors, Ralph Carr, who took a politically unpopular stand during World War II. He stated of Japanese-Americans who were interred in camps across the country, "If you harm them, you must harm me. I was brought up in a small town where I knew the shame and dishonor of race hatred." He had the courage to do what was right, despite the political costs that he paid.

Do South Carolina's leaders have the same courage? Please say "yes".

Sincerely,

cc: The Honorable John Hickenlooper, Colorado

Governor, the shooting in Charleston was an act of racially motivated terrorism. The recently posted pictures and manifesto make it clear that while waving the confederate flag this young man was a racist bent on harming people. The flag is a symbol of the south's past history of racism, slavery and violence against people of color. I have always wanted to travel through the south, but its time to take your state off my bucket list. Its time to take the flag down. Thank you.

Please remove that stupid, hate filled flag from your capital building. Enough is enough. Take a stand for what's right and ditch that rag. It's an embarrassment to the rest of the country. Your state needs to bury that symbol and re-join the rest of The Union.

Seriously. It's time.

Governor,

I disagree with your decision to remove this flag!!!! I'm sure most of the good honest people in your state would like for it to remain!!!

I was born in Alabama and have lived in Georgia since I retired from the military.

Did you ask the good southern people in your state, if they wanted to remove the flag or did you just ask the black people????????????????????

More and more times then I care to recall, it seems like the damn black people in America are getting.....EVERYTHING AND ANYTHING THEY WANT!!!!!!!

Just my thoughts! I'm white, do I still have my free speak rights???????

Yes, Governor Haley, I'm a NRA member too!!

I am deeply saddened by the tragedy in Charleston and unable to fully express my feeling of horror at the actions of one deranged man. Now these feelings are compounded by the knee jerk reaction of politicians wanting to show they are doing something. The Confederate Flag did not make this man crazy. Taking the flag down will not solve any problem because it did not cause any problem. Legislation passed in the heat of the moment is never any good nor is legislation passed to show you care and are doing something. We are constantly told not to judge a group by the actions of a few and then we constantly see this ignored. There are those who will use the saddest of events to advance their personal agenda as is the case here. Please leave the flag alone. It did nothing. Please do not bow to the actual hate mongers who defame it. Thank you.

You are the governor for the Blacks in SC. too. So take down that flag. It represents slavery...not the brave men who fought on both sides....one the wrong side. Can you image your children being torn away from you and sent to another state? Or you father or brother or husband hung and/or beat? Eventually sc will do the right thing. Why not today?

Dear. Mrs. Haley-

I am a research scientist that was trained in the "south" (North Carolina) and truly enjoyed the people and culture that I experienced in my 8 years in Raleigh NC. I appreciate the culture and general warmth we felt from the community there and everywhere we went in the south. What always bothered me was the overt racism (it is prevalent but less overt in the Pacific NW- they will tell you they are not racist, but that is not true) that we saw in the south. I am not a constituent of yours, so likely exert little influence over your day to day life, but I urge you to take the opportunity NOW to get the Confederate flag out of the popular culture of the south. There is no more reason for hate, other than some white men feeling like they are powerless. Times they are a changing, and we need to not only allow the change to happen, but welcome it. Change is what has made it possible for you and other "minorities" to be in government and has allowed me to progress in my scientific career. All lives matter. I hope you take this opportunity to act, rather than sitting on the sidelines of history.

My best to you and condolences on the tragic event in your state-

Marta E. [REDACTED]

If you would, please post these remarks on your Web site. Thank you.

To All Members of the AME Church, Shorter AME Church and South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley:

I was a freshman in college when the church was bombed in Birmingham. With other like-minded whites, we took to the streets to show our rage and our sorrow. Now, this kind of tragedy has struck again and I am physically unable to "take to the streets." Instead I am posting these remarks, the first is my own, the second is the very powerful words of Mike [REDACTED] on the respective Web sites in the hope that they can be part of the healing process.

I am posting the following every hour in the comment section under the news report.

'I would like to see all the southern states who have the Confederate flag as part of their current flag remove it completely. Someone posted a Web site the other day explaining how wonderful this flag was and how high minded all the symbols and colors are. That may be. In college an American history professor told us that slavery wasn't the only issue, that there were economic factors as well. That may be.. The bottom line, however is that it does symbolize a war that was fought MAINLY so that plantation owners could keep their slaves. It isn't just black it offends. It offends me, a white woman, and anyone who is fed up with all forms of racism.'

Mike [REDACTED] words are so powerful and should remain at the forefront of this situation.

Dear Pastor Tyler and the Elders of Shorter AME church.

My heart breaks for those children of God that we lost in your sister church in South Carolina tonight. On a night when old, devastating patterns of racial injustice return like childhood nightmares, it seemed the best thing to do was to get out of my bed and drive over here to make sure this note was the first thing you saw when you walked in the church tomorrow. This white man is driving over to this AME church to tell you how deeply grateful I am that the leaders of your church have helped build this city, and how honored I am that the ancestors of this church have helped build this great country.

For centuries your church has stood for the unconditional love, unfettered hope, and relentless forgiveness that define the American spirit. I want you to know I stand arm in arm with you today in your grief. I refuse to let one deranged man speak for me, and I also refuse to stay silent after his abomination. I drove over just to remind you and remind myself of the words from one of America's greatest preachers and one of the Lord's greatest prophets who said that "Hate can not drive out hate, only love can do that." With that truth in mind, in the wake of tonight's heartless stabs of hatred, I drove here to reaffirm the overwhelming supremacy of love. And to stand with millions of other white men who are proud to call you brothers and sisters, and who feel compelled now to right the wrongs of generations past by ensuring that these lost loved ones you will not grieve alone, this hollow hatred you will not face alone, and this righteous justice you will not seek alone.

Sincerely,

Mike [REDACTED]

Hello Governor Haley,

I am writing you today as a citizen of Charlotte who regularly does business and spends money in South Carolina. I would simply like to request that you please order the Confederate flag be taken down from government buildings in South Carolina, especially in light of the recent horrendous act of mass violence committed at the black church in Charleston. My family and friends will have a hard time continuing to support businesses in your state if they continue to be represented by a government that refuses to remove this symbol of hate and slavery from their government buildings.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully yours,

Michael [REDACTED]

I heard your governor's sarcastic retort when in the past she was asked about flying the confederate flag on a government, tax supported property. She expressed the opinion that business doesn't care about that flag. She is wrong. Why would any company open itself up to negative financial consequences of doing business in a state that officially shares & honors the same symbol as the kkk, nazis & gun terrorists? I know you have to work against this symbol & what it stands for every working day. Your job performance & your state's financial standing is harmed by what that flag stands for. The fact that your Governor doesn't know or understand that is an additional burden. Business will not relocate there because it is an unhealthy atmosphere for many of our employees & customer/clients. On another topic, does your governor realize how inappropriate % grotesque it was to talk about a death penalty sentence when the loved ones of the nine slain worshippers were expressing the love of God & forgiveness? It isn't the time. It also showed her to have a callousness when it comes to public displays. This mornin, she & her family took up a whole pew. The Governor needed to be there. She did not need to make a big show of her piety. Doesn't she realize that her big, public display kept congregants, friends, & family members out of that church service. Where are her manners? I've experienced big funerals. I have never seen the pushy, royal treatment demanded by South Carolina's first family. Where are her manners? To repeat, South Carolina never comes up as a location for most businesses because your state advertises racism. You look like a scary place to be. Sorry... I'm also sorry for typos. I'm using my phone.

OK I'm not a CEO but symbols of hate and racism have no business on the grounds of your state capitol. I, for one, will refrain from doing business in South Carolina until that flag comes down. And I will urge my colleagues to do the same.

I cannot express in words how disappointed I am in your position with regard to the Confederate Flag. Good that you have people like Rep. Doug Brannon - trying to do the right thing. The racial healing needs to start NOW. You are missing an amazing opportunity. Politics aside, this is about doing something that matters - sends a message - makes a difference. With all due respect, you suck as a politician, a leader, and sadly, I fear, as a citizen/person.

"South Carolina State Rep. Doug Brannon (R) is sponsoring a bill to remove the Confederate flag from the statehouse. Brannon was a close friend of state senator Rev. Clementa Pinckney, who was shot and killed in the massacre.

"I had a friend die Wednesday night for no reason other than he was a black man," grieved Brannon. "Sen. Pinckney was an incredible human being. I don't want to talk politics, but I'm going to introduce the bill for that reason."

South Carolina, and other southern states, needs to eradicate the Confederate flag.:

Not long ago your own heritage would have qualified you to limited services in the state you now run. Yet, this obvious symbol of bigotry still flies as a symbol of "Southern Pride". Shame on you for not having the fortitude to remove it. Every time I visit my family in your state, I shudder at its sight. It is time for you and your constituents to face the facts. Put this flag away in a museum. This is the 21st century. There is no longer a tolerance for this symbol.

Dylann Roof burned the American flag. He flew the Confederate flag.
Shy are you also flying the Cofederate flag? It is widely interpreted as a white supremacist symbol.

You say you're going to have a "conversation" about it and "see where it goes".

No conversation is required! Just take it down! My understanding is that your state law "allows" the flag to be flown over the capitol, but does not "require" that it be flown. So, if you are not the racist you appear to be by being so callous toward the events in Charleston, just take it down! Show you're serious by climbing up there and removing it personally.

Why do I think this will not happen? Well, you are South Carolina, after all.

I suggest that if the South Carolina Legislators cannot agree to put the flag away in a museum where it belongs, the governor should use her executive powers to declare a year of mourning in which the flag will be displayed at half-mast and with nine black ribbons attached. Citizens should also be encouraged to attach black ribbons to any such flags displayed in public areas such as parking lots.

Dear Gov. Haley, I urge you to take down that flag . . . the flag that promotes so much hate and racism throughout the United States. Even here in Pennsylvania it is a symbol for those who forgo critical thinking and brotherly love in favor of racism, narrow-minded bigotry, and hate. The people of your State are gathering to demonstrate their desire to have you act to remove this symbol of slavery in the old South. Do it for the 9 victims . . . victims who were so kind and inclusive that their killer nearly changed his mind.

Dear Governor,

I'm writing to express my appreciation for your decision to advocate for the removal of the confederate flag from the State House. It is a bold move that shows great leadership. And it is the right thing to do. Now let's hope it will happen soon.

Many thanks!

Dear Governor Haley:

I am a 56-year-old Caucasian native South Carolinian. The surnames of my ancestors that I know of who were Confederate soldiers were Pendarvis, Weathers and Wannamaker, from Orangeburg and Dorchester counties. I know where each of their graves is, and each grave has a Confederate soldier marker. That is between my ancestors and me.

Not everyone who is a South Carolina resident, native or otherwise, appreciates that part of my heritage is being a descendant of Confederate soldiers. I believe the State of South Carolina has no business and no right to display on the grounds of its state capitol an emblem that the Ku Klux Klan adopted for their evil when no one but them was even thinking about the Confederate flag. I believe this KKK emblem was placed atop the capitol dome in defiance of African Americans' fight for civil rights, and that the 100th anniversary of the Civil War was an unfortunate coincidence that the state's legislators at the time were able to conveniently hide behind.

This emblem has no place on our state house grounds. It is disrespectful to a large segment of our state's population and has been disrespectful to them since the day it went on the dome. It is just as disrespectful in its current location if not more so.

I urge you to use your power as governor to see to it that the State of South Carolina makes a meaningful gesture in honor of the people who lost their lives in Charleston to the KKK-emblem-wielding evil-doer whose views are only encouraged by such an inappropriate display on the front lawn of our seat of government. This gesture cannot wait. Please, see to it that this emblem, which isn't even the correct emblem for the Confederacy, is retired to a museum for all who wish to see it.

Respectfully.

Matt [REDACTED]

Dear Gov Haley, if we are supposed to be 'one nation'. let's be one nation. In light of the latest massacre in our country, one born of hate, let's get rid of a symbol of this hatred, the confederate flag. Let that be the first step in the healing of your people, your state and every state in our country. Show the country you are ready to start the healing by ridding your state of this symbol of hatred and bigotry! Take down the confederate flag! Show those poor families who have suffered the worst kind of loss, you feel their pain and will do something about it. The rest of will not stand idly by while this scourge of hatred rears its ugly head in the 21 st century. Shame. Thank you.

Dear Gov. Haley, first, please accept my condolences for the tragedy in Charleston. My prayers are for SC. I read of the push to remove the battle jack. I humbly suggest rotating the Jack to the St George Cross position. This maintains the historic (painful for many) elements it represents but most importantly, the rotation symbolizes the love over hate. I have witnessed your Great State's profound progress and encourage the rotation and further, the first raising should be in front of Mother Emanuel. Sincerely, Christine [REDACTED]

In light of the tragedy of nine lives being taken in Charleston, I hope that South Carolina will take the confederate flag off the state capitol building. Anything we can do to move forward, in the right direction, is needed in South Carolina. Some flags need to retire into history in order to lead future generations into honorable mindsets and actions. Taking the confederate flag off the state capitol is a small gesture in response to great sacrifices.

I was born & raised in the great state of SC. I am 60. I have given this confederate flag issue thought over the years & I feel this: officially retire the stars & bars, it belongs in a museum to recognize the evil of slavery. Also, recognize the poor & ignorant young men who lost their lives in this horrible conflict. We can mourn loss, and we can recognize southern hospitality at the same time. Don't blame the soldiers: retire the flag. We don't fly the British, Spanish or other losing flags: honor the dead & move on.

Bravo for making the courageous decision to remove the Confederate flag from the capital grounds. This from a politically conservative 67-year-old white man born and raised in the Low Country.

Thank you, too, for the dignity and grace with which you handled the recent tragedy in our beloved Charleston. The families of the victims pointed the way, and thank God for giving the rest of us the grace and good sense to follow their lead.

I'm an Indian American/South Asian and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too. Yes, this is an issue of gun control, but these murders also represent domestic terrorism and racial intolerance, and must be addressed on this level as well. As long as these symbols stand, your administration seems to be tolerating our nation's racist past-- a particularly painful time to be doing so.

Dear Governor Haley,

Recently I read that when the civil war ended, some southerners asked Robert E. Lee to continue the war by leading guerrilla fighting. Lee ethically responded by saying that the war was over, the south had lost, and they needed to get on with their lives. It is past time that S.C. follows Lee's example by removing that ugly symbol of hate and racism from your state capital. I loved my visit to Charleston in Feb. Had I realized that that rag still hung over your capital, I would not have visited. Since politicians seem to respond best to economic threats, I plan to mount a campaign to have other fair minded people boycott your lovely state for vacationing until you remove that despicable symbol. haley has become just like obama---she betrayed her voters by lying thru her ass to get elected then turned on them---obama/haley betrayed their voters---make promises and turn their backs on them---some call them traitors---is there a connection of races here? she is surrounded by blacks making the announcement---where are the whites? by the way , confederate flag sales have soared---thank you for that---Walmart does NOT sell many flags anyway, which really mean nothing---haley sold her soul to the devil---apparently to further her political ambition---she may be very disappointed when she finds out selling her soul is all she will get.

Ms. Haley, please remove the Symbol of Hate and Discrimination against all Minorities. Especially (Blacks) from the State Capital Bldgs. City and all others that fly this symbol of Hate. The Massacre at the Church was the result of your policies and the Hatred for Blacks. (Slaves) in the south for since days of slavery. What is it going to take to stop this Hatred. Ms. Haley you are a total disgrace for a Governor. SC and Charleston deserves better than you. 6-20-2015. PS: the State of SC should pay for all expenses for the Funerals of all the victims!!! Guns don't kill people. PEOPLE Kill PEOPLE!!!

I'm a Punjabi American and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As a South Asian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Gov Haley,
Please take down the Confederate flag. It promotes a racist time in our history and a time the South should want to forget.

Your comment that "CEO's aren't complaining" shows who you are really interested in serving.

That comment and that flag are a disgrace to this country.

Respectfully.

Message:

Dear Governor:

I grew up and went to school in the vicinity of Independence Hall in Philadelphia. At that time there were still living veterans of the war between the states. from the south and the north.

In recent years I spent time going through the records and archives of the civil war museum in Philadelphia. It is my opinion that when the southern states met in convention that their declaration of independence should have been honored. There was nothing improper or wrong with the confederacy being recognized and established. The south was ruined by northern aggression and in my opinion it still exists today through the actions of the federal government.

Keep the flag of the confederacy flying at the state capitol.

It represents a true event in history.

Thank you.

Please !!

It is more than time for us and special time for you, as Governor, to clearly speak out against the Confederate Flag and for it's removal. This includes removal from all State public grounds and properties. It is a hateful symbol and a problem reminder from the past.

Thank you for adding your voice.

The flag on the great memorial did not jump off the pole. catch a ride to Charleston. find that church then kill those people. I didn't know flags could do that! Same for the gun. Flag and gun. both inanimate objects. Put the suspect on trial. if he is guilty execute him. But don't penalize inanimate objects because of the guilt of a drugged and deranged person.

Thank you.

Message:

Honorable Nikki Haley,

I would like to express my support for allowing the Confederate Battle Flag to remain on the Statehouse grounds. The banner was placed there as part of a compromise in 2000. I am personally very concerned that there are those who would revise, and indeed re-write our States noble stand for states rights. Until yesterday I have been a supporter of your agenda. Now I regret to inform you that I will NEVER cast another vote for you, or any legislator who votes to remove this symbol of heritage (not hate). Please do not allow the politics of race to dictate your actions.

Message:

You need to stop your actions to remove an important part of South Carolina History. The Confederate Flag represents the dedication of the south's citizens against the oppression of the north. It represents the spirit of the southerners to separate themselves from a government that taxed them without adequate representation. dominated them due to their superior wealth, and looked down on them because their livelihood came out of the dirt.

You are gluing your lips to the posterior of a small group of special interest groups and throwing away a rich and colorful history. I grew up in Sumter and developed my spirit of political rebellion due to the saturation of southern strength. I am appalled that a South Carolinian would take steps like the ones you are taking to remove that heritage from our wonderful state.

Next are you going to make a law against saying "Yes. Ma'am" and "Yes. Sir" and "Y'all"?

Remove your lips from their butts and do the right thing. Keep our history!

I think the rebel flag represents the South for as long as I can remember. Myself I'm a transplant from the North and am a Yankee.

It seems ludicrous to waste time on such nonsense. I previously voted for you but why do you want to make a big deal out of this making it another politically correct issue.

You're governor but you're getting to personal with issues just like O Bama tries to do with his beliefs.

This does not set well with me as Government just keeps putting it's nose in more and more personal matters. That's my 2 cents.

Please remove the Confederate flag from your Capitol building. This is an issue that will take leadership. You are governor, please lead. You can do it. You can make a leadership position as governor and remove those flags. It needs to be done as soon as possible. It's the right thing to do and I think you know it.

Gov. Haley--SC's has modeled how to deal with tragedy by exercising faith when families' lives are interrupted with hatred and violence. Let's continue this message in SC by taking bold steps against what incites or perpetuates racial divide. And, when asked what SC will do about race, let's also ask the question of others. What will the media do? What will churches do? What will school boards do? What will families do? What will advertisers do? What will cities do? What will game developers do? What will moviemakers do? What will gun makers do? What will gun sellers do? What will individuals (you) do? What will lawmakers do? My point?...a heart change has to occur in all layers of society to address the hatred and vitriol that inundate our children on a daily basis. The anger, disrespect, and stalemate models provided by our government (especially in Washington) sets the tone for breeding hatred in our society. Please move the Confederate flag to a less prominent (in your face location) with the explanation and backstory from 1961 which is not from the Civil War heritage, but from the Civil Rights era. Let's not continue the lie about the symbolism of that particular flag. It'll take courage...which I think you have.

The Honorable Nikki R. Haley
Office of the Governor
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Governor Haley:

Question: Why did these tragic, racist events occur at this time, during Governor Nikki Haley's watch?

Answer: &quot;...It may be that thou hast come to the kingdom for such a time as this?&quot;--Esther 4:14

As a woman of faith, you know that the recent events in your state are no co-incidence. Simply put, God has delivered into your hand an Abraham Lincoln-like, a Queen Esther-like opportunity!

The whole world is watching South Carolina and through true Christians, they saw the power of Christ manifested in a way that it hasn't in other troubled states, and certainly unlike in any other part of the troubled world (Iraq, Syria, Iran, China, Russia, etc.)

I watched your press conference today regarding the flag controversy and saw clearly the hand of God in action and the role he has plotted for you, Governor Haley. South Carolina can redeem itself now, unlike at any other time in history, under the leadership of a woman, like Queen Esther. You know your state's sordid history as it relates to slavery and oppression! It may be that the Lord has positioned South Carolina--first to war in the defense of slavery, to now become-- first in peace and reconciliation in a way that Christ is glorified in the eyes of the whole world.

Don't go back to normal--go forward! I know this is not politically correct for the culture of the south but your state has this short window, with God's help, to build a coalition that makes it the standard of success to be mimicked by states and nations across the world. The flag issue is just the beginning, go way beyond that! The goal is love and brotherhood, not in words, but in deeds, as Christ intended it. "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." (St. John 13:35).

"There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.
On such a full sea are we now afloat,
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures." Julius Caesar Act 4, scene 3, 218-224

This, once in a lifetime tide of opportunity, will pass if not taken at the flood! But know for sure Governor,
"...if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise...from another place" (Esther 4:14).

Consider your place in history: consider your place in the Lamb's Book of Life!!!

Love and Peace In Christ Jesus.

Dear Governor Haley.

Visiting Charleston (and South Carolina in general) has long been on our list of places we would like to vacation. The recent terrorist attack on some of your finest citizens has greatly shaken us and we feel helpless in what we can do to somehow offer some sense of moral support.

What is clear is that the state sponsorship of displaying the Confederate flag is an affront to all Americans. Our pledge to you is that we will not spend even one penny in your state until that flag is forever removed. I'm quite sure I am not alone in reaching this decision. Additionally, I will reach out to every individual, corporation, association and charity I deal with and ask them to do the same.

The Honorable Nikki R. Haley
Office of the Governor
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Nikki,

Thank you for leading the effort to remove the confederate flag from the public grounds of the statehouse. I support this initiative.

As a descendant of a Civil War veteran – my great, great grandfather, I have had mixed emotions over the years regarding the flag. I am proud of my family and the sacrifices which they have made for generations in South Carolina whether it was for their community – serving as educators in the public school system, serving their state as soldiers and also in the General Assembly, or whether in their service to our country in World Wars I and II. Accordingly, I wish to honor their memories and sacrifice.

My ancestry's roots have been firmly established in South Carolina dating back to the late 1700's. This has born my pride for the state and why I personally have served my community at the chamber of commerce level as well as the state level promoting tourism economic development. I truly want what is best for the state and its future.

I sincerely believe that removal of the confederate flag is in the best interest of our state and will best represent the character, heart and legacy of the family whom I hold so dear.

God speed in your efforts on this initiative. Please call on me to help as needed.

My best regards,

Phil [redacted]

Honorable Governor Haley,

Take the Confederate Flag Down from the Capitol. It's a symbol of white supremacy and it should be gone with the wind. My family and I are in the process of planning a trip to the southeast and will not visit your fair state or spend any money there until the stars and bars are in a museum where they belong. not as a symbol of a 21st century democratic state.

Sincerely,

Louis and Susan [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley -

As a proud South Carolinian, I want to say thank you for your decisive, moral, and compassionate stance you took yesterday in regard to removing the Confederate Battle Flag from the State House Grounds. While I have only been living in SC for 8 years, and know that others have a much deeper and more complex history here, I am a citizen of a state I love, and I can honestly say I have never felt prouder to live here than yesterday.

Thank you for your courage, vision, and willingness to work to make things right for South Carolina. We all deserve to live in a state of decency.

Sincerely,

Sara [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley :

You mam are the epidimy of truth and decency. I was so happy to see unity in the calis murders. It's proffesional that a unified state can protect itself fr these racebaiters. I don't need to say who they are you know. It's not about the flag it's about love of your fellow man or woman. God bless you and the fine folks of Charleston

You are a great Governor and I to am Republican but your folks amazed me. Prayers to the beautiful people who lost their lives to a scum.

People are wondering what are your intentions to implement meaningful gun control legislation and removing the confederate flag in lieu of the crisis wavering over your State? Just because you are of East Indian descent doesn't make you an expert on racism in America. My experiences far outweigh yours. My own son was born in England and I have to educate both he and his mother on the issues of racism in America.

Gov.Haley,

I think it is sad that you changed you views about the Confederate Flag.I'm not sure if your views changed because of other fellow politicians pressure or if this is how you felt all along. but I think it is wrong for you and other people to use this time to push issues that have already been settled here in SC. just as it is wrong for Pres Obama for pushing gun control issues. I did vote for you and this disappoints me that you did this at this time. We need to mourn the lives of these ladies and gentlemen at this time and let the issue debating/solving be done later in the proper way by us. SC residents voting on them. I think it is a slap in the face of the people who died and their loved ones. for people to try and get their agendas pushed through and heard. I am a Christian and my heart aches for their loved ones but I do not like how y'all are using this time to change and push your own agendas. Please stop this now and let them mourn in peace.

Sincerely,

Karen [REDACTED]

I applaud you for taking this stand!!!! I only hope that the removal will be done during the middle of the night when the news media is unaware. I am afraid that if a joint "unification" rally is held to commemorate the removal then a lot of outside agitators may show up.

They seem to get into matters and "stir the Pot" when it is not necessary. My husband and I love Charleston and visit it every chance we get. I just don't want to see anything happen to such a wonderful and caring city. Racism is not the excuse for all that happens in our country....but if you listen to some politicians: you would think so.

Respectfully, Kay [REDACTED]

Decree that all Confederate flags belong in a museum. Confederate flags outside of the museum means that you still yearn for the times you were able to subjugate people of color. Do something for which you can really be proud. Destroy the prejudice in your state now!!!

Nine people were killed in a historic Church in Charleston. It is time to retire the Confederate flag to a historic place, a museum. We need to admit THE GONE WITH THE WIND mentality is fiction, romantic fiction and deal with the reality that there is one race created by God in Genesis ..the human race. We are all a part of one race. We need to put history in museums and not pretend a culture that approved enslaving humans was ever on the right track.

I hope for the courage of the State of South Carolina to right wrongs and clearly define the myths of the past.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for stating that it is time that the Confederate flag come down. It is time and you are setting a grand example for all of us who know that we are a state moving boldly into our future! We are about caring for, supporting and loving our fellow citizens, finding the good in them, bringing out the best in all of us--and your move today was just that! I am your fan!!

Aubrey, my colleague and well known for his work with businesses around the world, who wrote Bringing Out the Best in People among other books, is also a South Carolinian (he by birth, me by owning a home in HHI). Your move will make him proud as well--he has lived a long life (80 plus years) and grew up when times were different but he will be so glad that this issue will be resolved for the benefit of all.

You go, Girl! (Just a little liberty, Madam Governor)

Dear Governor,

First, I want to say that I enjoy visiting your beautiful, hospitable state with my family. Good people, good food, rich culture and history. That is South Carolina.

But, we have a big problem still with racial inequality in our country. I'm not naive enough to think this problem only exists in the South. I live in New England now and hail from the Midwest. Racial injustice is still a pervasive problem throughout our great country. But, South Carolina holds a significant place in the struggle for freedom from slavery for many Black Americans.

So, why am I writing you? I respectfully ask that you declare the Confederate flag be taken down in South Carolina. It will make some people terribly upset. They will feel part of their culture has been taken away. However, to a great many more people it will signal that you hear their cries and feel their pain. It will send a bigger message to those who hold (even only inwardly) racist ideology that this way of thinking must end now. Please consider this action.

Sincerely,

</MSG>

You have the opportunity to heal, to lead your state and your country away from its violent history of racial attacks and assaults by removing the call to arms against the government of the United States of America flying over your Capitol. Or, you could continue on the wrong side of history, keeping your legacy squarely in line with the KKK and related hate/treason/terror/insurrection groups. The choice is entirely yours. For me, my choice is clear: my family in Charleston visits me here rather than my spending a penny of my tourist dollars visiting them in a state that refuses to acknowledge that a flag declaring a declaration of war on the U.S. and used as the rallying cry for hate down to this very day belongs anywhere near the glorious Stars and Stripes.

I write to you today for one reason and one reason only. Take down that confederate flag. Stand up and be brave. It is a symbol of hate. Yes, it is part of our history and it should be in a museum. But not at our capital for everyone to see. When we see it waving it is as if we are celebrating that part of history that we as South Carolinians should be embarrassed of. Be on the right side of history.

The explanation for why the Confederate Flag is not at half mast is more shameful and outrageous than no explanation at all. Spare the nation your tears until you permanently bring down that invitation to murder blacks.

I was born and raised in Mississippi. In 1966 I left the state for graduate school and never returned. Economic opportunity took me to California via 4 years of intervening military service.

I will never revisit South Carolina as long as the confederate flag is raised on your capital grounds. Please ask the Governor to challenge her Republican base. Such courage allowed the colonies to confront the British long ago. The Governor's tears and words in Charleston were so sincere. What is most important? Tears of compassion? Fear of change? What can be more important than leading South Carolina forward into the future? Persistently and eloquently ask your Legislature to act! Then a Governor's job is done. And the history will remember that the Governor's tears were greater than her fears.

Nikki i have been a huge supporter of you and your party. Sadly today you will no longer will recieve an election vote from me or from my residents. This is because you didnt give the chance for us South Carolinians to voice our opinions. You should have let us vote on it instead of taking it into your own hands.

The world is watching. The racially motivated killing of 9 innocent people by a deranged individual could have been prevented. Rethink your position on gun control. There is no reason on God's green earth why a sick individual soul as Roof should ever possess a gun. Use your head. Stop with the ideology. America cannot advance with policies that support open warfare on peace loving individuals. Do you want our cities to look and feel like Syria? That's where this ends. We no longer have a society governed by laws that protect the individual. Tribal law prevails. Use your platform responsibly. Save lives. Take down your damn flag. Time to evolve.
