

From: Today's Caregiver eNewsletter <newsletters=caregiver.com@mail43.us4.mcsv.net>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 1/17/2017 9:07:28 AM
Subject: Confessions of a Sometimes Caregiver

View this email in your browser

Forward

Share

Tweet

+1

Share

Confessions of a Sometimes Caregiver • January 17, 2017 • Issue #983

Today's Caregiver Friendly Award Previous Winners

Grace Ridge

Long-Term Care Facilities
Morganton, North Carolina

What is your facility's philosophy towards family caregiver participation?

We believe the best care results when resident and family caregivers partner with the interdisciplinary team, not as passive partners but as actively engaged team members. The Grace Ridge team encourages caregivers to participate with care in any way they would like. Caregivers participate in mealtime assistance, bathing, attend group outings, help with social events or activities and volunteer in areas of specific interest. Teammates build trusting relationships with family members and are highly regarded by residents and their loved ones as extended family. This compassion and commitment by the staff creates an environment where family members are comfortable participating. ...more

2017 Call for Entries | Visit the Winners Gallery

---

IN THIS ISSUE

Today's Caregiver Friendly
Award Winner: Grace Ridge

Hypothermia and Older Adults

Confessions of a Sometimes Caregiver

Eating Habits: Feeding
Your Elderly Loved Ones

CareNotes

---

FEATURED ARTICLE

Hypothermia and Older Adults

Tips for staying safe in cold weather

Frigid weather can pose special risks to older adults. The National Institute on Aging (NIA), part of the National Institutes of Health, has some advice for helping older people avoid hypothermia — when the body gets too cold — during cold weather. ...more

---

GUEST ARTICLE

Confessions of a Sometimes Caregiver

By Emily Cooper

My mother, an 86-year-old widow, lives alone in a small town in the farming country of central Kansas. Born and raised in the town, she returned there with my father after his retirement, leaving the big city in order to spend their “golden years” with her sisters, brothers, and childhood friends back home. Unfortunately it wasn’t long after my parents’ return that the siblings became ill and died; many of the old friends died as well. Mom took care of her family, one by one, through dementia, strokes, and cancer; and just when she thought she could take a break, my father was diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease and her caregiving resumed again. During those years, Mom had her own share of health problems that required the care of family, and that care always fell to me. Like mother, like daughter. ...more

---

---

CARETIPS

Eating Habits: Suggestions When Feeding Your Elderly Loved Ones

By Ryan Mackey

Alleviate any diversions when eating, and be basic with your meals:

- Use only utensils that are needed.
  - Have cups with lids to avoid a mess if spilled.
  - If possible, use bowls instead of plates.
  - Provide food that can easily be eaten. Serve food that is already cut, cooled, and easily recognizable to the person. ...more
-

Today's Caregiver Supports Your Conference

Non-profit Organizations Sign-up Today!

Don't miss this opportunity. We will provide complimentary magazines for your conference attendees. All you pay is shipping and handling.

---

CARENOTES

From Renee:

Is there any program help me assist me with getting my mother into a supportive living facility quicker, because I really don't have anyone to help and I live in Atlanta GA. ...more

Reply to this week's CareNote

---

Copyright © 2017 Today's Caregiver, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you are a subscriber to the Today's Caregiver Newsletter List or a friend thought you would be interested.

Our mailing address is:

Today's Caregiver 3920 Riverland Road Fort Lauderdale, FL 33312 USA

update subscription preferences

unsubscribe from this list